FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

16 November 2023

RECOMMENDED CASH ACQUISITION
of
HOTEL CHOCOLAT GROUP PLC
by
HIVE BIDCO, INC.

a wholly-owned indirect subsidiary of Mars, Incorporated,

to be implemented by means of a scheme of arrangement under Part 26 of the Companies Act 2006

Summary

- The boards of directors of Hive Bidco, Inc. (“Bidco”) and Hotel Chocolat Group plc (“Hotel Chocolat”) are pleased to announce that they have reached agreement on the terms of a recommended cash acquisition, pursuant to which Bidco, a wholly-owned indirect subsidiary of Mars, Incorporated (“Mars”), will acquire the entire issued and to be issued ordinary share capital of Hotel Chocolat (the “Acquisition”). It is intended that the Acquisition will be implemented by means of a Court-sanctioned scheme of arrangement under Part 26 of the Companies Act.
- Under the terms of the Acquisition, which will be subject to the Conditions and further terms set out in Appendix 1 to this announcement and to the full terms and conditions which will be set out in the Scheme Document, each Hotel Chocolat Shareholder at the Scheme Record Time will be entitled to receive:

for each Hotel Chocolat Share 375 pence in cash (the “Cash Offer”)
- The Cash Offer values the entire issued and to be issued share capital of Hotel Chocolat at approximately £534 million on a fully diluted basis.
- The Cash Offer represents a premium of approximately:
 - 169.8 per cent. to Hotel Chocolat’s share price of 139 pence at the close of business on 15 November 2023, being the last Business Day prior to the date of this announcement.
 - 194.2 per cent. to the volume-weighted average price of 127 pence per Hotel Chocolat Share for the 60-day period ended at the close of business on 15

November 2023, being the last Business Day prior to the date of this announcement.

- 144.3 per cent. to the volume-weighted average price of 154 pence per Hotel Chocolat Share for the 12 month period ended at the close of business on 15 November 2023, being the last Business Day prior to the date of this announcement.
- As an alternative to the Cash Offer, eligible Hotel Chocolat Shareholders may elect to receive one unlisted share of Class B stock of Bidco (a “Rollover Share”) for each Hotel Chocolat Share (the “Partial Share Alternative”), such Rollover Shares to be issued on the terms and pursuant to the mechanism described in paragraphs 13 and 14 and Appendix 4 of this announcement. Eligible Hotel Chocolat Shareholders will be able to elect for the Partial Share Alternative in relation to some or all of their holdings of Hotel Chocolat Shares, subject to any such election being in respect of at least the Minimum Rollover Threshold (as defined in paragraph 2 of this announcement). In aggregate, the maximum number of Rollover Shares available to be issued to eligible Hotel Chocolat Shareholders under the Partial Share Alternative will be limited to the equivalent of 30 per cent. of the Bidco Offer Shares (as defined in paragraph 14 of this announcement). The key terms and conditions of the Partial Share Alternative are summarised in paragraph 13 of this announcement and a more detailed summary of the rights attaching to the Rollover Shares is set out in Appendix 4 to this announcement. The Rollover Shares will not be listed nor transferable (subject to certain limited exceptions). An estimate by Morgan Stanley (as financial adviser to Bidco) of the value of a Rollover Share, together with the assumptions, qualifications and caveats forming the basis of its estimate of value, will be set out in a letter to be included in the Scheme Document.
- If, on or after the date of this announcement and prior to the Effective Date, any dividend and/or other distribution and/or other return of capital or value is announced, declared, made or paid or becomes payable in respect of the Hotel Chocolat Shares, Bidco reserves the right to reduce the consideration due pursuant to the Cash Offer (and, as the case may be, the consideration due under the Partial Share Alternative) under the terms of the Acquisition at such date by an amount up to the amount of such dividend and/or distribution and/or return of capital or value. In such circumstances, Hotel Chocolat Shareholders shall be entitled to retain any such dividend, distribution, or other return of value declared, made or paid.

Background to and reasons for the Acquisition

- Mars has long admired Hotel Chocolat’s impressive credentials as a contemporary, premium brand with a differentiated product offering, world-class product quality and strong direct-to-consumer capabilities through its physical store presence and sophisticated digital commerce platform.
- Mars believes that Hotel Chocolat and Mars are culturally aligned, with shared values of quality, sustainability and purpose among their guiding principles. Mars’ stated purpose is “the world we want tomorrow starts with how we do business today” and it shares the passion and conviction in Hotel Chocolat’s mission, “to make people and nature happy through reinventing chocolate”.

- Mars believes it is well-positioned to support Hotel Chocolat's next growth phase with its international footprint, global supply chain and extensive commercial relationships, which could provide the Hotel Chocolat brand with an enhanced platform for growth in the UK and potentially in new geographies.
- Mars has a strong track record of nurturing entrepreneurial brands, including KIND, Nature's Bakery and Tru Fru. Mars believes that it can support Hotel Chocolat's founders and management team, who it holds in high regard, to generate long-term value for the benefit of all stakeholders, whilst maintaining Hotel Chocolat's brand and supporting its continued delivery of high quality, premium products to consumers.
- Mars considers that the Acquisition would further strengthen its commitment to the UK market (where it has operated since 1932 and today employs c.10k people), bringing a much-loved brand into its portfolio and deepening its relationships with consumers. The UK has been an important market for Mars, and it expects this to be complemented by the acquisition of Hotel Chocolat, with its distinctive capabilities in product development, luxury gifting and immersive brand experiences.
- Mars believes that it is ideally positioned to support Hotel Chocolat's long-term strategic objectives with better access to committed, long-term capital, and to provide Hotel Chocolat's management team and employees with a supportive environment within a like-minded, entrepreneurial, purpose-led, family-owned business.

Recommendation

- The Hotel Chocolat Directors, who have been so advised by Lazard and Liberum as to the financial terms of the Cash Offer, consider the terms of the Cash Offer to be fair and reasonable. In providing their financial advice to the Hotel Chocolat Directors, Lazard and Liberum have each taken into account the commercial assessments of the Hotel Chocolat Directors. Lazard is providing independent financial advice to the Hotel Chocolat Directors for the purposes of Rule 3 of the Code.
- Accordingly, the Hotel Chocolat Directors intend to unanimously recommend Hotel Chocolat Shareholders to vote in favour of the Scheme at the Court Meeting and the Resolutions at the General Meeting (or, in the event that the Acquisition is implemented by way of a Takeover Offer, to accept or procure acceptance of the Takeover Offer) as they have irrevocably undertaken to do in respect of their Hotel Chocolat Shares (representing, in aggregate, approximately 54.2 per cent. of the issued ordinary share capital of Hotel Chocolat as at 15 November 2023, being the last Business Day prior to this announcement).
- For the reasons described below, the Hotel Chocolat Directors are not making any recommendation to holders of Hotel Chocolat Shares in relation to the Partial Share Alternative. In considering the terms of the Partial Share Alternative, Lazard, Liberum and the Hotel Chocolat Directors have identified certain key disadvantages and advantages of electing for the Partial Share Alternative outlined below:

Disadvantages of electing for the Partial Share Alternative

- The Rollover Shares will be:

- unlisted and will not be admitted to trading on any stock exchange or market for the trading of securities and will therefore be illiquid. Any assessment of the value of the Rollover Shares should therefore take into account an individual shareholder's assessment of an appropriate liquidity discount;
 - subject to a five-year lock-up restriction, during which they can only be transferred in very limited circumstances, and thereafter will be subject to a right of first refusal in favour of Mars Snacking Holdings and certain other restrictions (including, but not limited to, in respect of the identity of the proposed transferee and requirements in respect of compliance with anti-money laundering, anti-bribery and corruption and anti-sanctions checks and receipt of necessary regulatory approvals (if applicable)); and
 - of uncertain value and there can be no assurance that they will be capable of being sold in the future (other than pursuant to the put and call options described in Appendix 4) or that they will be capable of being sold at the value to be estimated by Morgan Stanley in the Scheme Document.
- The amount payable by Mars Snacking Holdings to Rollover Shareholders in respect of any purchase of Rollover Shares on the exercise of any of the put or call options described in Appendix 4 will depend on the future performance of the Hotel Chocolat business under the Bidco Group's ownership. This remains uncertain and could result in the amount received being less than the cash consideration foregone under the Cash Offer.
 - Upon the Effective Date, the Bidco Group will be controlled by Mars Snacking Holdings. Holders of the Rollover Shares, which will not carry any general voting rights at general meetings of Bidco nor the right to receive a copy of or vote on any written resolutions of shareholders of Bidco and will have consent rights only in respect of a very limited number of reserved matters (exercisable only by a supermajority of Rollover Shareholders), will therefore have no influence over decisions made by Bidco in relation to its investment in Hotel Chocolat or in any other business.
 - Individual Rollover Shareholders will have limited control over the date(s) on and value(s) at which they may be able to realise their investment in the Bidco Group and, in particular, only Original Rollover Shareholders holding 5 per cent. or more of the Bidco Shares issued at or around the Effective Date may defer the exercise of their put option rights in any Interim Option Exercise Period.
 - The rights of Rollover Shareholders to participate in future issues of securities by Bidco will be subject to certain exceptions (including those described in paragraph 8 of Appendix 4) which may result in them suffering significant dilution.
 - The percentage ownership of Bidco attributable to Hotel Chocolat Shareholders who elect for the Partial Share Alternative, but do not subsequently provide the cash funds required to accept their entitlements pursuant to any further issue of securities by Bidco in the period following the Effective Date, would be significantly reduced.

- The Hotel Chocolat Shares are currently admitted to trading on AIM and Hotel Chocolat Shareholders are afforded certain standards and protections, including in respect of disclosure, as a result. Hotel Chocolat Shareholders who receive Rollover Shares (being unlisted securities in a private company) will not be afforded protections commensurate with those that they currently benefit from as shareholders in Hotel Chocolat, including because Bidco intends to rely on an exemption from registration under US securities laws and will therefore not be registering the Rollover Shares with the US Securities and Exchange Commission. Except for the information to be provided to the Rollover Shareholder Representative (but not to other Rollover Shareholders) in connection with the put and call options as described in Appendix 4, neither the Bidco Organisational Documents nor the Bidco Shareholders' Agreement will provide holders of Rollover Shares with information rights.
- Payments in respect of Rollover Shares will not be guaranteed or secured and it is not anticipated that Bidco will declare or pay any distributions on any of the Rollover Shares prior to the end of the Final Option Exercise Period described in Appendix 4.
- Hotel Chocolat Shareholders will have no certainty as to the amount of Rollover Shares they would receive because:
 - the maximum number of Rollover Shares available to Hotel Chocolat Shareholders under the Partial Share Alternative will be limited to the equivalent of 30 per cent. of the Bidco Offer Shares; and
 - to the extent that elections for the Partial Share Alternative cannot be satisfied in full, the number of Rollover Shares to be issued to each eligible Hotel Chocolat Shareholder who has elected for the Partial Share Alternative will be reduced on a pro rata basis, and the consideration for each Hotel Chocolat Share that is not exchanged for Rollover Shares will be paid in cash in accordance with the terms of the Cash Offer.

Advantages of electing for the Partial Share Alternative

- The Partial Share Alternative allows eligible Hotel Chocolat Shareholders to invest directly in Bidco, providing continued economic exposure to Hotel Chocolat under private ownership.
- The Partial Share Alternative will entitle eligible Hotel Chocolat Shareholders to sell their Rollover Shares during certain pre-defined option exercise periods pursuant to the put options summarised in Appendix 4 below, which may ultimately result in the cash amount received per Hotel Chocolat Share being more than under the Cash Offer (although this cannot be guaranteed).

- From completion of the Acquisition, the Rollover Shares will rank economically pari passu with the investment in Bidco by Mars Snacking Holdings, and will carry a pro rata entitlement to dividends, distributions and returns of capital.
- Lazard and Liberum are unable to advise the Hotel Chocolat Directors as to whether or not the financial terms of the Partial Share Alternative are fair and reasonable. This is because Lazard and Liberum have not had any involvement in the development and validation of any financial projections for Bidco. As a result, Lazard and Liberum are unable to assess any plans Bidco may have for the development of Hotel Chocolat or the Bidco Group to the degree necessary to form an assessment of the value of the Partial Share Alternative. Lazard and Liberum also note the significant and variable impact that the disadvantages and advantages of the Partial Share Alternative may have for individual eligible Hotel Chocolat Shareholders. In terms of the advantages, these include, in particular, the ability to participate in the potential future value creation of the Hotel Chocolat Group. In terms of the disadvantages, these include, in particular, the level of uncertainty in their future value which will depend on the performance of Hotel Chocolat over a number of years which itself will be impacted by the business plan and strategy of the business under Bidco's control, as well as the terms of the Rollover Shares including the fact that they are illiquid and subject to a five-year lock-up period, the potential dilution that would result if a Hotel Chocolat Shareholder did not fund their pre-emptive entitlement pursuant to any further issue of securities by Bidco in the period following the Effective Date and the fact that the Rollover Shares do not carry voting rights other than on very limited reserved matters.
- Accordingly, the Hotel Chocolat Directors are unable to form an opinion as to whether or not the terms of the Partial Share Alternative are fair and reasonable and are not making any recommendation to eligible Hotel Chocolat Shareholders as to whether or not they should elect for the Partial Share Alternative.
- Hotel Chocolat Shareholders are encouraged to take into account the key advantages and disadvantages outlined above and in paragraph 4 in relation to the Partial Share Alternative, as well as their particular circumstances, when deciding whether to elect for the Partial Share Alternative in respect of all or part of their holding in Hotel Chocolat Shares (subject to any such election being in respect of at least the Minimum Rollover Threshold). Hotel Chocolat Shareholders should also ascertain whether acquiring or holding Rollover Shares is affected by the laws of the relevant jurisdiction in which they reside and consider whether Rollover Shares are a suitable investment in light of their own personal circumstances. Accordingly, Hotel Chocolat Shareholders are strongly recommended to seek their own independent financial, tax and legal advice in light of their own particular circumstances and investment objectives before deciding whether to elect for the Partial Share Alternative. Any decision to elect for the Partial Share Alternative should be based on any such independent financial, tax and legal advice and full consideration of the information in this announcement and the Scheme Document (when published).

Background to and reasons for the recommendation

- Over the last 20 years, Hotel Chocolat has evolved to become one of the UK's leading premium chocolate brands. Hotel Chocolat is known not only for its high quality "More Cacao Less Sugar” products, but also for the values of originality, authenticity and ethical behaviour which are at the core of its business. Since the Hotel Chocolat business was founded, innovation has remained at the forefront of what Hotel Chocolat strives for. New products such as the Velvetiser drinking chocolate system have ensured that the business continues to resonate with its customers. Hotel Chocolat manufactures the vast majority of its chocolate products at its UK-based innovation centre in Cambridgeshire and enjoys a direct relationship with its millions of UK customers through its growing network of stores, an online channel and selected resale partners. Areas of international growth for Hotel Chocolat include the US digital subsidiary business, the cocoa agro-tourism Saint Lucian subsidiary business and Hotel Chocolat's minority shareholding in the Japanese brand licence partnership. Since Hotel Chocolat's initial listing on AIM in 2016, Hotel Chocolat's revenues have grown by 124.5 per cent. to approximately £205 million in the 53-week period ended 2 July 2023.

- Hotel Chocolat's disappointing financial results for the 53-week period ended 2 July 2023 reflected a year of intensive re-shaping to deal with the consequences of Hotel Chocolat's previous fast growth. In the first quarter of the current financial year, Hotel Chocolat's revenue growth has benefited from opportunities available through opening more stores in the UK and extending the Hotel Chocolat brand into new product categories. The Hotel Chocolat Directors believe the Hotel Chocolat brand, with its exciting range of products, has potential for substantial growth outside the UK in the years ahead.
- While this growth potential has previously been recognised by the market and reflected in the Hotel Chocolat share price, over the last year or two it has become clear to the Hotel Chocolat Directors that achieving this potential will require substantial investment and time. In particular, the need for, and cost of, the recent reorganisation of Hotel Chocolat's initial expansion into the US and Japan illustrates the scale of the challenge to grow the Hotel Chocolat brand internationally. While the Hotel Chocolat Directors believe that Hotel Chocolat could realise the full potential of the Hotel Chocolat brand on a standalone basis in the UK in the medium term, in order to achieve its overseas growth ambitions in the near to medium term in a way that would capture the full value for Hotel Chocolat Shareholders would require a level of investment that is likely to exceed that available from its own resources.
- Whilst Hotel Chocolat is making good progress implementing a three year plan to re-shape its future business and the Hotel Chocolat Directors consider that the recent share price does not accurately reflect the underlying value and potential of Hotel Chocolat, the Hotel Chocolat Directors nevertheless believe that it is right to recommend Bidco's highly attractive offer for the following reasons:
 - The Cash Offer price at 375 pence per share values the entire issued and to be issued share capital of Hotel Chocolat at approximately £534 million on a fully diluted basis and implies an enterprise value of £570 million and a multiple of approximately 23.7 times Underlying EBITDA for the 53-week period ended 2 July 2023.
 - The Cash Offer provides an opportunity for Hotel Chocolat Shareholders to achieve a substantial premium to the current Hotel Chocolat Share price, a premium to the 2021 placing price of 355 pence per Hotel Chocolat Share and is well above typical public market offer premiums.

- The Cash Offer price represents a premium of approximately:
 - 169.8 per cent. to Hotel Chocolat's share price of 139 pence at the close of business on 15 November 2023, being the last Business Day prior to the date of this announcement.
 - 194.2 per cent. to the volume-weighted average price of 127 pence per Hotel Chocolat Share for the 60-day period ended at the close of business on 15 November 2023, being the last Business Day prior to the date of this announcement.
 - 144.3 per cent. to the volume-weighted average price of 154 pence per Hotel Chocolat Share for the 12 month period ended at the close of business on 15 November 2023, being the last Business Day prior to the date of this announcement.
- The Hotel Chocolat Directors believe the Cash Offer also appropriately reflects the value of the potential growth of Hotel Chocolat on a standalone basis over the medium term and provides an opportunity for Hotel Chocolat Shareholders to realise their investment in Hotel Chocolat, in cash, at a highly attractive price. The certainty of the Cash Offer should be weighed against the uncertainty of the value which may be delivered through the Partial Share Alternative and the risks inherent in executing successfully on the future strategy of Hotel Chocolat as an independent listed company.
- Notwithstanding the positive management action and encouraging revenue growth resulting from Hotel Chocolat's recent UK store expansion programme, the Hotel Chocolat Directors acknowledge that the challenging macro-economic environment, particularly in the discretionary consumer space, may expose Hotel Chocolat to an element of risk in achieving its credible but ambitious business plan targets.
- If Hotel Chocolat continues as a listed company, it is likely to be difficult in the short to medium term for Hotel Chocolat to raise the significant equity funding required to expand the business internationally in a way that captures more of the potential value for shareholders. Expanding into new territories through an asset and investment light model by way of partners providing funding is likely to result in much of the benefit of such growth being realised by the partners rather than Hotel Chocolat.
- With substantially all of Hotel Chocolat's free cash likely to be required for re-investment into Hotel Chocolat's growth strategy for the foreseeable future, it is likely to be some time before Hotel Chocolat is in a position to be able to pay a significant dividend.
- The Hotel Chocolat Directors believe that Mars would be an excellent steward of the Hotel Chocolat brand. Mars has expressed its excitement about the long-term prospects of the Hotel Chocolat business and has been clear that it intends to continue to support Hotel Chocolat's business in the UK and to explore opportunities to grow the Hotel Chocolat brand outside the UK. Mars shares similar values to Hotel Chocolat, including in key areas such as quality and sustainability, and has agreed a cash price for Hotel Chocolat that the Hotel Chocolat Directors believe recognises Hotel Chocolat's impressive credentials as a premium chocolate brand and its ethical farming and environmental practices that are considered to be important by many consumers in today's market.

- The Hotel Chocolat Directors also believe that Mars is well positioned to support Hotel Chocolat in its next phase of growth and continue to invest in the business to improve the sustainable long-term value of the Hotel Chocolat business. The Hotel Chocolat Directors believe that the Hotel Chocolat brand would benefit from better access to committed, long-term capital as part of a like-minded, entrepreneurial, purpose-led, family-owned business. The Hotel Chocolat Directors welcome Mars' stated intentions for the broader business, management, employees and business footprint of Hotel Chocolat.
- As a result of all of the above, the Hotel Chocolat Directors believe the Acquisition will allow Hotel Chocolat to achieve growth faster and more sustainably than Hotel Chocolat would be able to achieve alone.
- Accordingly, following careful consideration of the above factors, the Hotel Chocolat Directors intend to unanimously recommend the Cash Offer to Hotel Chocolat Shareholders.

Shareholder support

- Bidco has received commitments and indications of support for the Acquisition from Hotel Chocolat Shareholders in respect of 95,753,759 Hotel Chocolat Shares representing, in aggregate, approximately 69.6 per cent. of the existing issued ordinary share capital of Hotel Chocolat as at 15 November 2023, being the last Business Day prior to this announcement. These commitments and indications comprise irrevocable undertakings in respect of 88,875,376 Hotel Chocolat Shares representing, in aggregate, approximately 64.6 per cent. of the existing issued ordinary share capital of Hotel Chocolat and a non-binding letter of intent in respect of 6,878,383 Hotel Chocolat Shares representing approximately 5.0 per cent. of the existing issued ordinary share capital of Hotel Chocolat, in each case as at 15 November 2023, being the last Business Day prior to this announcement.
- The irrevocable undertakings include irrevocable undertakings from each Founder, a related trust of each Founder and the other Hotel Chocolat Directors who are interested in Hotel Chocolat Shares to vote in favour of the Scheme at the Court Meeting and the Resolutions at the General Meeting (or, in the event that the Acquisition is implemented by way of a Takeover Offer, to accept or procure acceptance of the Takeover Offer) in respect of 74,525,727 Hotel Chocolat Shares owned or controlled by them representing, in aggregate, approximately 54.2 per cent. of the existing issued ordinary share capital of Hotel Chocolat as at 15 November 2023, being the last Business Day prior to this announcement. Each Founder and a related trust of one of the Founders have also undertaken to elect for the Partial Share Alternative in respect of an aggregate of 42,699,969 Hotel Chocolat Shares as described in paragraph 6 and Appendix 3 of this announcement.

- In addition, these commitments and indications include an irrevocable undertaking and a non-binding letter of intent from Phoenix Asset Management Partners Limited (“Phoenix”) to vote in favour of the Scheme at the Court Meeting and the Resolutions at the General Meeting (or, in the event that the Acquisition is implemented by way of a Takeover Offer, to accept the Takeover Offer). The Phoenix Irrevocable Undertaking (as defined in paragraph 6) and the non-binding letter of intent are in respect of, in aggregate, all Hotel Chocolat Shares under Phoenix’s investment management control representing, in aggregate, approximately 15.4 per cent. of the existing issued ordinary share capital of Hotel Chocolat as at 15 November 2023, being the last Business Day prior to this announcement.
- Further details of these irrevocable undertakings (including the circumstances in which they may lapse) and the non-binding letter of intent are set out in Appendix 3 to this announcement.

Timetable and conditions

- The Scheme and Acquisition will be subject to the terms and conditions set out in this announcement and to be set out in full in the Scheme Document, including amongst other things the satisfaction or (where applicable) waiver of the Conditions and certain further terms referred to in Appendix 1 to this announcement. In relation to the Scheme, this includes, among others:
 - the approval of the Scheme by a majority in number of, representing not less than 75 per cent. in value of the Hotel Chocolat Shares voted by, Scheme Shareholders present and voting and entitled to vote, either in person or by proxy, at the Court Meeting;
 - the approval of the Resolutions by the requisite majority of Hotel Chocolat Shareholders at the General Meeting; and
 - the sanction of the Scheme by the Court.
- It is expected that the Scheme Document, containing further information about the Acquisition and notices of the Court Meeting and General Meeting, together with the Forms of Proxy and Form of Election, will be sent to Hotel Chocolat Shareholders and (for information only) participants in the Hotel Chocolat Share Schemes within 28 days of this announcement (or such later time as Hotel Chocolat, Bidco and the Panel agree).
- The Scheme is expected to be effective in Q1 2024, subject to the satisfaction or (where applicable) waiver of all relevant conditions, including the Conditions. An expected timetable of key events relating to the Acquisition will be provided in the Scheme Document.
- Commenting on today’s announcement, Angus Thirlwell, Chief Executive Officer of Hotel Chocolat said:

“Hotel Chocolat’s brand destiny is to become a leading premium chocolate brand in major markets through reinventing chocolate for people and nature. In Mars we have found a true meeting of minds - in strong cultural values, bold strategy and true long-termism.

Our Gentle Farming programme has got off to a promising start and we truly believe it can help make cocoa agriculture right for nature and for people. Joining forces with Mars to achieve an increased positive impact, is a huge attraction for us.

We know our brand resonates with consumers overseas, but operational supply chain challenges have held us back. By partnering with Mars, we can grow our international presence much more quickly using their skills, expertise and capabilities.

The pillars on which we have built the Hotel Chocolat brand – originality, authenticity and ethical trading, is precisely what brought Hotel Chocolat and Mars together and our intention is to strengthen and invest behind these. I’m excited about the future of the business and in Mars we have found an excellent long-term steward of the Hotel Chocolat brand and everything we stand for.”

- Commenting on today’s announcement, Stephen Alexander, Chair of Hotel Chocolat said:

“Hotel Chocolat is a brand with strong long-term prospects and today’s deal will allow it to grow further and faster. Joining forces with Mars will deliver great value through the Cash Offer for Hotel Chocolat shareholders and the combination will create exciting opportunities for Hotel Chocolat employees as part of Mars.”

- Commenting on today’s announcement, Andrew Clarke, Global President of Mars Snacking, said:

“We have long admired the fantastic business that Angus, Peter and the Hotel Chocolat team have created. Hotel Chocolat is a differentiated and much-loved brand, with an impressive product offering and a deep commitment to its values of originality, authenticity and ethical trading. The Mars and Hotel Chocolat businesses are highly complementary, and during the course of our discussions with Hotel Chocolat’s leadership it has also become clear that there is a very strong cultural fit - with purpose at the heart of both organisations, and a shared passion for quality and sustainability.

Mars has a long and proud history in the UK, and today’s announcement further strengthens our commitment to this important market by bringing an exciting brand into our portfolio and deepening our relationship with consumers. Building on the strong foundations that Angus, Peter and their team have established, we are very excited to support Hotel Chocolat’s next phase of growth.

We are confident that Mars will be an excellent long-term home for Hotel Chocolat, providing a like-minded, entrepreneurial and purpose-led environment in which to maximise the potential of the Hotel Chocolat brand which is already so beloved by consumers.”

Overseas jurisdictions

The release, publication or distribution of this announcement in or into jurisdictions other than the UK may be restricted by law and therefore any persons who are subject to the law of any jurisdiction other than the UK should inform themselves about, and observe, any applicable legal or regulatory requirements. In particular the ability of persons who are not resident in the United Kingdom, to vote their Hotel Chocolat Shares with respect to the Scheme at the Court Meeting, or to appoint another person as proxy to vote at the Court Meeting on their behalf, may be affected by the laws of the relevant jurisdictions in which they are located. Any failure to comply with the applicable restrictions may constitute a violation of the securities laws of any such jurisdiction. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the companies and persons involved in the Acquisition disclaim any responsibility or liability for the violation of such restrictions by any person. This announcement has been prepared for the purposes of complying with English law, the AIM Rules and the Code and the information disclosed may not be the same as that which would have been disclosed if this announcement had been prepared in accordance with the laws of jurisdictions outside of England.

Copies of this announcement and formal documentation relating to the Acquisition will not be and must not be, mailed or otherwise forwarded, distributed or sent in, into or from any Restricted Jurisdiction or any jurisdiction where to do so would violate the laws of that jurisdiction and persons receiving such documents (including custodians, nominees and trustees) must not mail or otherwise forward, distribute or send them in or into or from any Restricted Jurisdiction. Doing so may render invalid any related purported vote in respect of the Acquisition. If the Acquisition is implemented by way of Takeover Offer (unless otherwise permitted by applicable law or regulation), the Takeover Offer may not be made, directly or indirectly, in or into or by use of the mails or any other means or instrumentality (including, without limitation, facsimile, email or other electronic transmission, telex or telephone) of interstate or foreign commerce of, or any facility of a national, state or other securities exchange of any Restricted Jurisdiction and the Takeover Offer will not be capable of acceptance by any such use, means, instrumentality or facilities or from within any Restricted Jurisdiction.

The availability of the Acquisition (including the Partial Share Alternative) to Hotel Chocolat Shareholders who are not resident in the United Kingdom may be affected by the laws of the relevant jurisdictions in which they are resident. Persons who are not resident in the United Kingdom should inform themselves of, and observe, any applicable requirements.

Further details in relation to Overseas Shareholders will be contained in the Scheme Document.

The Acquisition shall be subject to the applicable requirements of the Code, the Panel, the London Stock Exchange, the FCA and the AIM Rules.

Additional information for US investors

The Acquisition is being made to acquire the shares of an English company by means of a scheme of arrangement provided for under English law. A transaction effected by means of a scheme of arrangement is not subject to the tender offer rules or the proxy solicitation rules under the US Exchange Act. Accordingly, the Scheme will be subject to disclosure requirements and practices applicable in the UK to schemes of arrangement, which are different from the disclosure requirements of the US tender offer and proxy solicitation rules. The financial information included in this announcement and the Scheme documentation has been or will have been prepared in accordance with accounting standards applicable in the United Kingdom and thus may not be comparable to financial information of US companies or companies whose financial statements are prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the US. If Bidco exercises its right to implement the acquisition of the Hotel Chocolat Shares by way of a Takeover Offer, such offer will be made in compliance with applicable US laws and regulations.

The receipt of cash pursuant to the Acquisition by a US holder as consideration for the transfer of its Hotel Chocolat Shares pursuant to the Scheme will likely be a taxable transaction for United States federal income tax purposes and under applicable United States state and local, as well as foreign and other, tax laws. Each Hotel Chocolat Shareholder is urged to consult their independent professional adviser immediately regarding the tax consequences of the Acquisition applicable to them.

The Rollover Shares issued under the Partial Share Alternative will not be registered under the US Securities Act of 1933 (the “Securities Act”). Bidco expects to issue the Rollover Shares in reliance upon the exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act provided by Section 3(a)(10) thereof (“Section 3(a)(10)”). Section 3(a)(10) exempts securities issued in specified exchange transactions from the registration requirement under the Securities Act where, among other things, the fairness of the terms and conditions of the issuance and exchange of such securities have been approved by a court or governmental authority expressly authorised by law to grant such approval, after a hearing upon the fairness of the terms and conditions of the exchange at which all persons to whom the Rollover Shares are proposed to be issued have the right to appear and receive adequate and timely notice thereof. If Bidco exercises its right to implement the acquisition of the Hotel Chocolat Shares by way of a Takeover Offer, the Rollover Shares will not be offered in the United States except pursuant to an exemption from or in a transaction not subject to registration under the Securities Act.

The Rollover Shares that may be issued pursuant to the Acquisition have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act or under the relevant securities laws of any state or territory or other jurisdiction of the United States and will not be listed on any stock exchange. Neither the US Securities and Exchange Commission nor any US state securities commission has approved or disapproved of the Partial Share Alternative or determined if the Scheme Document is accurate or complete. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offence.

In accordance with normal UK practice and pursuant to Rule 14e-5(b) of the US Exchange Act (to the extent applicable), Bidco or its nominees, or its brokers (acting as agents), may from time to time make certain purchases of, or arrangements to purchase, Hotel Chocolat Shares outside of the US, other than pursuant to the Acquisition, until the date on which the Acquisition and/or Scheme becomes effective, lapses or is otherwise withdrawn. If such purchases or arrangements to purchase were to be made, they would be made outside of the US and would be in accordance with applicable law, including the US Exchange Act and the Code. These purchases may occur either in the open market at prevailing prices or in private transactions at negotiated prices. Any information about such purchases will be disclosed as required in the UK, will be reported to a Regulatory Information Service and will be available on the London Stock Exchange website at www.londonstockexchange.com.

Forward looking statements

This announcement (including information incorporated by reference in this announcement), oral statements made regarding the Acquisition, and other information published by Bidco, Mars and Hotel Chocolat contain statements which are, or may be deemed to be, “forward-looking statements”. Forward-looking statements are prospective in nature and are not based on historical facts, but rather on current expectations and projections of the management of Bidco, Mars and Hotel Chocolat about future events, and are therefore subject to risks and uncertainties which could cause actual results to differ materially from the future results expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements. The forward-looking statements contained in this announcement include statements relating to the expected effects of the Acquisition on Bidco, Mars and Hotel Chocolat, the expected timing and scope of the Acquisition and other statements other than historical facts. Often, but not always, forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of forward-looking words such as “plans”, “expects” or “does not expect”, “is expected”, “is subject to”, “budget”, “scheduled”, “estimates”, “forecasts”, “intends”, “goal”, “anticipates” or “does not anticipate”, or “believes”, or variations of such words and phrases or statements that certain actions, events or results “may”, “could”, “should”, “would”, “might” or “will” be taken, occur or be achieved. Although Bidco, Mars and Hotel Chocolat believe that the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements are reasonable, Bidco, Mars and Hotel Chocolat can give no assurance that such expectations will prove to be correct. By their nature, forward-looking statements involve risk and uncertainty because they relate to events and depend on circumstances that will occur in the future. There are a number of factors that could cause actual results and developments to differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Among the factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements are changes in the global, political, economic, business, competitive, market and regulatory forces, future exchange and interest rates, changes in tax rates and future business combinations or dispositions, and any epidemic, pandemic or disease outbreak. Other unknown or unpredictable factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements should therefore be construed in the light of such factors. Neither Bidco, Mars nor Hotel Chocolat, nor any of their respective associates or directors, members, managers, partners, officers or advisers, provides any representation, assurance or guarantee that the occurrence of the events expressed or implied in any forward-looking statements in this announcement will actually occur. You are cautioned not to place any reliance on these forward-looking statements. The forward-looking statements speak only at the date of this announcement. All subsequent oral or written forward-looking statements attributable to Bidco or any member of the Wider Bidco Group or the Hotel Chocolat Group, or any of their respective associates, directors, officers, employees or advisers, are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statement above. Other than in accordance with their legal or regulatory obligations, neither Bidco, Mars or Hotel Chocolat is under any obligation, and Bidco, Mars and Hotel Chocolat expressly disclaim any intention or obligation, to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

Dealing disclosure requirements

Under Rule 8.3(a) of the Code, any person who is interested in 1% or more of any class of relevant securities of an offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror (being any offeror other than an offeror in respect of which it has been announced that its offer is, or is likely to be, solely in cash) must make an Opening Position Disclosure following the commencement of the offer period and, if later, following the announcement in which any securities exchange offeror is first identified. An Opening Position Disclosure must contain details of the person's interests and short positions in, and rights to subscribe for, any relevant securities of each of (i) the offeree company and (ii) any securities exchange offeror(s). An Opening Position Disclosure by a person to whom Rule 8.3(a) applies must be made by no later than 3.30 pm (London time) on the 10th business day following the commencement of the offer period and, if appropriate, by no later than 3.30 pm (London time) on the 10th business day following the announcement in which any securities exchange offeror is first identified. Relevant persons who deal in the relevant securities of the offeree company or of a securities exchange offeror prior to the deadline for making an Opening Position Disclosure must instead make a Dealing Disclosure.

Under Rule 8.3(b) of the Code, any person who is, or becomes, interested in 1% or more of any class of relevant securities of the offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror must make a Dealing Disclosure if the person deals in any relevant securities of the offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror. A Dealing Disclosure must contain details of the dealing concerned and of the person's interests and short positions in, and rights to subscribe for, any relevant securities of each of (i) the offeree company and (ii) any securities exchange offeror(s), save to the extent that these details have previously been disclosed under Rule 8. A Dealing

Disclosure by a person to whom Rule 8.3(b) applies must be made by no later than 3.30 pm (London time) on the business day following the date of the relevant dealing.

If two or more persons act together pursuant to an agreement or understanding, whether formal or informal, to acquire or control an interest in relevant securities of an offeree company or a securities exchange offeror, they will be deemed to be a single person for the purpose of Rule 8.3.

Opening Position Disclosures must also be made by the offeree company and by any offeror and Dealing Disclosures must also be made by the offeree company, by any offeror and by any persons acting in concert with any of them (see Rules 8.1, 8.2 and 8.4).

Details of the offeree and offeror companies in respect of whose relevant securities Opening Position Disclosures and Dealing Disclosures must be made can be found in the Disclosure Table on the Takeover Panel's website at www.thetakeoverpanel.org.uk, including details of the number of relevant securities in issue, when the offer period commenced and when any offeror was first identified. You should contact the Panel's Market Surveillance Unit on +44 (0)20 7638 0129 if you are in any doubt as to whether you are required to make an Opening Position Disclosure or a Dealing Disclosure.

General

Bidco reserves the right to elect, with the consent of the Panel and subject to the terms of the Cooperation Agreement, to implement the Acquisition by way of a Takeover Offer as an alternative to the Scheme. If the Acquisition is effected by way of a Takeover Offer, and such offer becomes or is declared unconditional and sufficient acceptances are received, Bidco intends to exercise its rights to apply the provisions of Chapter 3 of Part 28 of the Companies Act so as to acquire compulsorily the remaining Hotel Chocolat Shares in respect of which the Takeover Offer has not been accepted.

Investors should be aware that Bidco may purchase Hotel Chocolat Shares otherwise than under any Takeover Offer or the Scheme, including pursuant to privately negotiated purchases.

THIS ANNOUNCEMENT CONTAINS INSIDE INFORMATION FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

16 November 2023

of
HOTEL CHOCOLAT GROUP PLC
by
HIVE BIDCO, INC.

a wholly-owned indirect subsidiary of Mars, Incorporated,

to be implemented by means of a scheme of arrangement under Part 26 of the Companies Act 2006

1. Introduction

The boards of directors of Hive Bidco, Inc. (“Bidco”) and Hotel Chocolat Group plc (“Hotel Chocolat”) are pleased to announce that they have reached agreement on the terms of a recommended cash acquisition, pursuant to which Bidco, a wholly-owned indirect subsidiary of Mars, Incorporated (“Mars”), will acquire the entire issued and to be issued ordinary share capital of Hotel Chocolat (the “Acquisition”).

It is intended that the Acquisition will be implemented by means of a Court-sanctioned scheme of arrangement under Part 26 of the Companies Act.

2. The Acquisition

Under the terms of the Acquisition, which will be subject to the Conditions and further terms set out in Appendix 1 to this announcement and to the full terms and conditions which will be set out in the Scheme Document, each Hotel Chocolat Shareholder at the Scheme Record Time will be entitled to receive:

for each Hotel Chocolat Share 375 pence in cash (the “Cash Offer”)

The Cash Offer values the entire issued and to be issued share capital of Hotel Chocolat at approximately £534 million on a fully diluted basis.

The Cash Offer represents a premium of approximately:

- (a) 169.8 per cent. to Hotel Chocolat’s share price of 139 pence at the close of business on 15 November 2023, being the last Business Day prior to the date of this announcement.

- (b) 194.2 per cent. to the volume-weighted average price of 127 pence per Hotel Chocolat Share for the 60-day period ended at the close of business on 15 November 2023, being the last Business Day prior to the date of this announcement.
- (c) 144.3 per cent. to the volume-weighted average price of 154 pence per Hotel Chocolat Share for the 12 month period ended at the close of business on 15 November 2023, being the last Business Day prior to the date of this announcement.

Partial Share Alternative

As an alternative to the Cash Offer, eligible Hotel Chocolat Shareholders may elect to receive one unlisted share of Class B stock of Bidco (a “Rollover Share”) for each Hotel Chocolat Share (the “Partial Share Alternative”), such Rollover Shares to be issued on the terms and pursuant to the mechanism described in paragraphs 13 and 14 and Appendix 4 of this announcement.

Eligible Hotel Chocolat Shareholders will be able to elect for the Partial Share Alternative in relation to some or all of their holdings of Hotel Chocolat Shares, subject to any such Hotel Chocolat Shareholder electing for the Partial Share Alternative in respect of at least 30 per cent. of the Hotel Chocolat Shares held by them on the “election return date” (further details of which shall be included in the Scheme Document) (the “Minimum Rollover Threshold”).

In aggregate, the maximum number of Rollover Shares available to be issued to eligible Hotel Chocolat Shareholders under the Partial Share Alternative will be limited to the equivalent of 30 per cent. of the Bidco Offer Shares (as defined in paragraph 14 below).

The Partial Share Alternative is not being offered, sold or delivered, directly or indirectly, in or into any Restricted Jurisdiction (and so Hotel Chocolat Shareholders in such jurisdictions will not be eligible to elect for the Partial Share Alternative) and individual acceptances of the Partial Share Alternative will only be valid if all regulatory approvals required by a Hotel Chocolat Shareholder to acquire the Rollover Shares have been obtained.

The Rollover Shares will be independently valued and an estimate of the value of the Rollover Shares will be included in the Scheme Document. Further information about the Rollover Shares is set out in paragraphs 13 and 14 and Appendix 4 and will be included in the Scheme Document.

If, on or after the date of this announcement and prior to the Effective Date, any dividend and/or other distribution and/or other return of capital or value is announced, declared, made or paid or becomes payable in respect of the Hotel Chocolat Shares, Bidco reserves the right to reduce the consideration due pursuant to the Cash Offer (and, as the case may be, the consideration due under the Partial Share Alternative) under the terms of the Acquisition at such date by an amount up to the amount of such dividend and/or distribution and/or return of capital or value. In such circumstances,

Hotel Chocolat Shareholders shall be entitled to retain any such dividend, distribution, or other return of value declared, made or paid.

3. Background to and reasons for the Acquisition

Mars has long admired Hotel Chocolat's impressive credentials as a contemporary, premium brand with a differentiated product offering, world-class product quality and strong direct-to-consumer capabilities through its physical store presence and sophisticated digital commerce platform.

Mars believes that Hotel Chocolat and Mars are culturally aligned, with shared values of quality, sustainability and purpose among their guiding principles. Mars' stated purpose is "the world we want tomorrow starts with how we do business today" and it shares the passion and conviction in Hotel Chocolat's mission, "to make people and nature happy through reinventing chocolate".

Mars believes it is well-positioned to support Hotel Chocolat's next growth phase with its international footprint, global supply chain and extensive commercial relationships, which could provide the Hotel Chocolat brand with an enhanced platform for growth in the UK and potentially in new geographies.

Mars has a strong track record of nurturing entrepreneurial brands, including KIND, Nature's Bakery and Tru Fru. Mars believes that it can support Hotel Chocolat's founders and management team, who it holds in high regard, to generate long-term value for the benefit of all stakeholders, whilst maintaining Hotel Chocolat's brand and supporting its continued delivery of high quality, premium products to consumers.

Mars considers that the Acquisition would further strengthen its commitment to the UK market (where it has operated since 1932 and today employs c.10k people), bringing a much-loved brand into its portfolio and deepening its relationships with consumers. The UK has been an important market for Mars, and it expects this to be complemented by the acquisition of Hotel Chocolat, with its distinctive capabilities in product development, luxury gifting and immersive brand experiences.

Mars believes that it is ideally positioned to support Hotel Chocolat's long-term strategic objectives with better access to committed, long-term capital, and to provide Hotel Chocolat's management team and employees with a supportive environment within a like-minded, entrepreneurial, purpose-led, family-owned business.

4. Recommendation

Acquisition and Cash Offer

The Hotel Chocolat Directors, who have been so advised by Lazard and Liberum as to the financial terms of the Cash Offer, consider the terms of the Cash Offer to be fair and reasonable. In providing their financial advice to the Hotel Chocolat Directors, Lazard and Liberum have each taken into account the commercial assessments of the Hotel Chocolat Directors. Lazard is providing independent financial advice to the Hotel Chocolat Directors for the purposes of Rule 3 of the Code.

Accordingly, the Hotel Chocolat Directors intend to unanimously recommend Hotel Chocolat Shareholders to vote in favour of the Scheme at the Court Meeting and the Resolutions at the General Meeting (or, in the event that the Acquisition is implemented by way of a Takeover Offer, to accept or procure acceptance of the Takeover Offer) as they have irrevocably undertaken to do in respect of their Hotel Chocolat Shares (representing, in aggregate, approximately 54.2 per cent. of the issued ordinary share capital of Hotel Chocolat as at 15 November 2023, being the last Business Day prior to this announcement).

Partial Share Alternative

For the reasons described below, the Hotel Chocolat Directors are not making any recommendation to holders of Hotel Chocolat Shares in relation to the Partial Share Alternative. In considering the terms of the Partial Share Alternative, Lazard, Liberum and the Hotel Chocolat Directors have identified certain key disadvantages and advantages of electing for the Partial Share Alternative outlined below:

Disadvantages of electing for the Partial Share Alternative

- (a) The Rollover Shares will be:
 - (i) unlisted and will not be admitted to trading on any stock exchange or market for the trading of securities and will therefore be illiquid. Any assessment of the value of the Rollover Shares should therefore take into account an individual shareholder's assessment of an appropriate liquidity discount;
 - (ii) subject to a five-year lock-up restriction, during which they can only be transferred in very limited circumstances, and thereafter will be subject to a right of first refusal in favour of Mars Snacking Holdings and certain other restrictions (including, but not limited to, in respect of the identity of the proposed transferee and requirements in respect of compliance with anti-money laundering, anti-bribery and corruption and anti-sanctions checks and receipt of necessary regulatory approvals (if applicable)); and
 - (iii) of uncertain value and there can be no assurance that they will be capable of being sold in the future (other than pursuant to the put and call options described in Appendix 4) or that they will be capable of being sold at the value to be estimated by Morgan Stanley in the Scheme Document.
- (b) The amount payable by Mars Snacking Holdings to Rollover Shareholders in respect of any purchase of Rollover Shares on the exercise of any of the put or call options described in Appendix 4 will depend on the future performance of the Hotel Chocolat business under the Bidco Group's ownership. This remains uncertain and could result in the amount received being less than the cash consideration foregone under the Cash Offer.
- (c) Upon the Effective Date, the Bidco Group will be controlled by Mars Snacking Holdings. Holders of the Rollover Shares, which will not carry any general voting rights at general meetings of Bidco nor the right to receive a copy of or vote on any written resolutions of shareholders of Bidco and will have consent rights only in respect of a very limited number of reserved matters (exercisable only by a supermajority of Rollover Shareholders), will therefore have no influence over decisions made by Bidco in relation to its investment in Hotel Chocolat or in any other business.

- (d) Individual Rollover Shareholders will have limited control over the date(s) on and value(s) at which they may be able to realise their investment in the Bidco Group and, in particular, only Original Rollover Shareholders holding 5 per cent. or more of the Bidco Shares issued at or around the Effective Date may defer the exercise of their put option rights in any Interim Option Exercise Period.
- (e) The rights of Rollover Shareholders to participate in future issues of securities by Bidco will be subject to certain exceptions (including those described in paragraph 8 of Appendix 4) which may result in them suffering significant dilution.
- (f) The percentage ownership of Bidco attributable to Hotel Chocolat Shareholders who elect for the Partial Share Alternative, but do not subsequently provide the cash funds required to accept their entitlements pursuant to any further issue of securities by Bidco in the period following the Effective Date, would be significantly reduced.
- (g) The Hotel Chocolat Shares are currently admitted to trading on AIM and Hotel Chocolat Shareholders are afforded certain standards and protections, including in respect of disclosure, as a result. Hotel Chocolat Shareholders who receive Rollover Shares (being unlisted securities in a private company) will not be afforded protections commensurate with those that they currently benefit from as shareholders in Hotel Chocolat, including because Bidco intends to rely on an exemption from registration under US securities laws and will therefore not be registering the Rollover Shares with the US Securities and Exchange Commission. Except for the information to be provided to the Rollover Shareholder Representative (but not to other Rollover Shareholders) in connection with the put and call options as described in Appendix 4, neither the Bidco Organisational Documents nor the Bidco Shareholders' Agreement will provide holders of Rollover Shares with information rights.
- (h) Payments in respect of Rollover Shares will not be guaranteed or secured and it is not anticipated that Bidco will declare or pay any distributions on any of the Rollover Shares prior to the end of the Final Option Exercise Period described in Appendix 4.
- (i) Hotel Chocolat Shareholders will have no certainty as to the amount of Rollover Shares they would receive because:
 - (i) the maximum number of Rollover Shares available to Hotel Chocolat Shareholders under the Partial Share Alternative will be limited to the equivalent of 30 per cent. of the Bidco Offer Shares; and

- (ii) to the extent that elections for the Partial Share Alternative cannot be satisfied in full, the number of Rollover Shares to be issued to each eligible Hotel Chocolat Shareholder who has elected for the Partial Share Alternative will be reduced on a pro rata basis, and the consideration for each Hotel Chocolat Share that is not exchanged for Rollover Shares will be paid in cash in accordance with the terms of the Cash Offer.

Advantages of electing for the Partial Share Alternative

- (a) The Partial Share Alternative allows eligible Hotel Chocolat Shareholders to invest directly in Bidco, providing continued economic exposure to Hotel Chocolat under private ownership.
- (b) The Partial Share Alternative will entitle eligible Hotel Chocolat Shareholders to sell their Rollover Shares during certain pre-defined option exercise periods pursuant to the put options summarised in Appendix 4 below, which may ultimately result in the cash amount received per Hotel Chocolat Share being more than under the Cash Offer (although this cannot be guaranteed).
- (c) From completion of the Acquisition, the Rollover Shares will rank economically pari passu with the investment in Bidco by Mars Snacking Holdings, and will carry a pro rata entitlement to dividends, distributions and returns of capital.

Lazard and Liberum are unable to advise the Hotel Chocolat Directors as to whether or not the financial terms of the Partial Share Alternative are fair and reasonable. This is because Lazard and Liberum have not had any involvement in the development and validation of any financial projections for Bidco. As a result, Lazard and Liberum are unable to assess any plans Bidco may have for the development of Hotel Chocolat or the Bidco Group to the degree necessary to form an assessment of the value of the Partial Share Alternative. Lazard and Liberum also note the significant and variable impact that the disadvantages and advantages of the Partial Share Alternative may have for individual eligible Hotel Chocolat Shareholders. In terms of the advantages, these include, in particular, the ability to participate in the potential future value creation of the Hotel Chocolat Group. In terms of the disadvantages, these include in particular, the level of uncertainty in their future value which will depend on the performance of Hotel Chocolat over a number of years which itself will be impacted by the business plan and strategy of the business under Bidco's control, as well as the terms of the Rollover Shares including the fact that they are illiquid and subject to a five-year lock-up period, the potential dilution that would result if a Hotel Chocolat Shareholder did not fund their pre-emptive entitlement pursuant to any further issue of securities by Bidco in the period following the Effective Date and the fact that the Rollover Shares do not carry voting rights other than on very limited reserved matters.

Accordingly, the Hotel Chocolat Directors are unable to form an opinion as to whether or not the terms of the Partial Share Alternative are fair and reasonable and are not making any recommendation to eligible Hotel Chocolat Shareholders as to whether or not they should elect for the Partial Share Alternative.

Hotel Chocolat Shareholders are encouraged to take into account the key advantages and disadvantages outlined above and in paragraph 4 in relation to the Partial Share Alternative, as well as their particular circumstances, when deciding whether to elect for the Partial Share Alternative in respect of all or part of their holding in Hotel Chocolat Shares (subject to any such election being in respect of at least the Minimum Rollover Threshold). Hotel Chocolat Shareholders should also ascertain whether acquiring or holding Rollover Shares is affected by the laws of the relevant jurisdiction in which they reside and consider whether Rollover Shares are a suitable investment in light of their own personal circumstances. Accordingly, Hotel Chocolat Shareholders are strongly recommended to seek their own independent financial, tax and legal advice in light of their own particular circumstances and investment objectives before deciding whether to elect for the Partial Share Alternative. Any decision to elect for the Partial Share Alternative should be based on any such independent financial, tax and legal advice and full consideration of the information in this announcement and the Scheme Document (when published).

Further details of the Partial Share Alternative are set out in paragraphs 13 to 15 (inclusive) and Appendix 4 of this announcement.

5. Background to and reasons for the recommendation

Over the last 20 years, Hotel Chocolat has evolved to become one of the UK's leading premium chocolate brands. Hotel Chocolat is known not only for its high quality "More Cacao Less Sugar" products, but also for the values of originality, authenticity and ethical behaviour which are at the core of its business. Since the Hotel Chocolat business was founded, innovation has remained at the forefront of what Hotel Chocolat strives for. New products such as the Velvetiser drinking chocolate system have ensured that the business continues to resonate with its customers. Hotel Chocolat manufactures the vast majority of its chocolate products at its UK-based innovation centre in Cambridgeshire and enjoys a direct relationship with its millions of UK customers through its growing network of stores, an online channel and selected resale partners. Areas of international growth for Hotel Chocolat include the US digital subsidiary business, the cocoa agro-tourism Saint Lucian subsidiary business and Hotel Chocolat's minority shareholding in the Japanese brand licence partnership. Since Hotel Chocolat's initial listing on AIM in 2016, Hotel Chocolat's revenues have grown by 124.5 per cent. to approximately £205 million in the 53-week period ended 2 July 2023.

Hotel Chocolat's disappointing financial results for the 53-week period ended 2 July 2023 reflected a year of intensive re-shaping to deal with the consequences of Hotel Chocolat's previous fast growth. In the first quarter of the current financial year, Hotel Chocolat's revenue growth has benefited from opportunities available through opening more stores in the UK and extending the Hotel Chocolat brand into new product categories. The Hotel Chocolat Directors believe the Hotel Chocolat brand, with its exciting range of products, has potential for substantial growth outside the UK in the years ahead.

While this growth potential has previously been recognised by the market and reflected in the Hotel Chocolat share price, over the last year or two it has become clear to the Hotel Chocolat Directors that achieving this potential will require substantial investment and time. In particular, the need for, and cost of, the recent reorganisation of Hotel Chocolat's initial expansion into the US and Japan illustrates the scale of the challenge to grow the Hotel Chocolat brand internationally. While the Hotel Chocolat Directors believe that Hotel Chocolat could realise the full potential of the Hotel Chocolat brand on a standalone basis in the UK in the medium term, in order to achieve its overseas growth ambitions in the near to medium term in a way that would capture the full value for Hotel Chocolat Shareholders would require a level of investment that is likely to exceed that available from its own resources.

Whilst Hotel Chocolat is making good progress implementing a three year plan to re-shape its future business and the Hotel Chocolat Directors consider that the recent share price does not accurately reflect the underlying value and potential of Hotel Chocolat, the Hotel Chocolat Directors nevertheless believe that it is right to recommend Bidco's highly attractive offer for the following reasons:

- The Cash Offer price at 375 pence per share values the entire issued and to be issued share capital of Hotel Chocolat at approximately £534 million on a fully diluted basis and implies an enterprise value of £570 million and a multiple of approximately 23.7 times Underlying EBITDA for the 53-week period ended 2 July 2023.
- The Cash Offer provides an opportunity for Hotel Chocolat Shareholders to achieve a substantial premium to the current Hotel Chocolat Share price, a premium to the 2021 placing price of 355 pence per Hotel Chocolat Share and is well above typical public market offer premiums.
- The Cash Offer price represents a premium of approximately:
 - 169.8 per cent. to Hotel Chocolat's share price of 139 pence at the close of business on 15 November 2023, being the last Business Day prior to the date of this announcement.
 - 194.2 per cent. to the volume-weighted average price of 127 pence per Hotel Chocolat Share for the 60-day period ended at the close of business on 15 November 2023, being the last Business Day prior to the date of this announcement.
 - 144.3 per cent. to the volume-weighted average price of 154 pence per Hotel Chocolat Share for the 12 month period ended at the close of business on 15 November 2023, being the last Business Day prior to the date of this announcement.
- The Hotel Chocolat Directors believe the Cash Offer also appropriately reflects the value of the potential growth of Hotel Chocolat on a standalone basis over the medium term and provides an opportunity for Hotel Chocolat Shareholders to realise their investment in Hotel Chocolat, in cash, at a highly attractive price. The certainty of the Cash Offer should be weighed against the uncertainty of the value which may be delivered through the Partial Share Alternative and the risks inherent in executing successfully on the future strategy of Hotel Chocolat as an independent listed company.

- Notwithstanding the positive management action and encouraging revenue growth resulting from Hotel Chocolat's recent UK store expansion programme, the Hotel Chocolat Directors acknowledge that the challenging macro-economic environment, particularly in the discretionary consumer space, may expose Hotel Chocolat to an element of risk in achieving its credible but ambitious business plan targets.
- If Hotel Chocolat continues as a listed company, it is likely to be difficult in the short to medium term for Hotel Chocolat to raise the significant equity funding required to expand the business internationally in a way that captures more of the potential value for shareholders. Expanding into new territories through an asset and investment light model by way of partners providing funding is likely to result in much of the benefit of such growth being realised by the partners rather than Hotel Chocolat.
- With substantially all of Hotel Chocolat's free cash likely to be required for re-investment into Hotel Chocolat's growth strategy for the foreseeable future, it is likely to be some time before Hotel Chocolat is in a position to be able to pay a significant dividend.
- The Hotel Chocolat Directors believe that Mars would be an excellent steward of the Hotel Chocolat brand. Mars has expressed its excitement about the long-term prospects of the Hotel Chocolat business and has been clear that it intends to continue to support Hotel Chocolat's business in the UK and to explore opportunities to grow the Hotel Chocolat brand outside the UK. Mars shares similar values to Hotel Chocolat, including in key areas such as quality and sustainability, and has agreed a cash price for Hotel Chocolat that the Hotel Chocolat Directors believe recognises Hotel Chocolat's impressive credentials as a premium chocolate brand and its ethical farming and environmental practices that are considered to be important by many consumers in today's market.
- The Hotel Chocolat Directors also believe that Mars is well positioned to support Hotel Chocolat in its next phase of growth and continue to invest in the business to improve the sustainable long-term value of the Hotel Chocolat business. The Hotel Chocolat Directors believe that the Hotel Chocolat brand would benefit from better access to committed, long-term capital as part of a like-minded, entrepreneurial, purpose-led, family-owned business. The Hotel Chocolat Directors welcome Mars' stated intentions for the broader business, management, employees and business footprint of Hotel Chocolat.
- As a result of all of the above, the Hotel Chocolat Directors believe the Acquisition will allow Hotel Chocolat to achieve growth faster and more sustainably than Hotel Chocolat would be able to achieve alone.
- Accordingly, following careful consideration of the above factors, the Hotel Chocolat Directors intend to unanimously recommend the Cash Offer to Hotel Chocolat Shareholders.

6. Irrevocable undertakings and letter of intent

Bidco has received commitments and indications of support for the Acquisition from Hotel Chocolat Shareholders in respect of 95,753,759 Hotel Chocolat Shares representing, in aggregate, approximately 69.6 per cent. of the existing issued ordinary share capital of Hotel Chocolat as at 15 November 2023, being the last Business Day prior to this announcement.

Bidco has received irrevocable undertakings from each Founder (the “Founder Irrevocable Undertakings”) and from a related trust of each Founder (the “Family Trusts”) (the “Family Trust Irrevocable Undertakings”) to vote in favour of the Scheme at the Court Meeting and the Resolutions at the General Meeting (or, if the Acquisition is subsequently structured as a Takeover Offer, to accept, or procure the acceptance of, the Takeover Offer).

The Founder Irrevocable Undertakings are in respect of the entire holdings owned or controlled by the Founders amounting to 63,911,314 Hotel Chocolat Shares representing, in aggregate, approximately 46.4 per cent. of the existing issued ordinary share capital of Hotel Chocolat as at 15 November 2023, being the last Business Day prior to this announcement.

The Family Trust Irrevocable Undertakings are in respect of the entire holdings owned or controlled by the Family Trusts amounting to 10,600,000 Hotel Chocolat Shares representing, in aggregate, approximately 7.7 per cent. of the existing issued ordinary share capital of Hotel Chocolat as at 15 November 2023, being the last Business Day prior to this announcement.

Pursuant to the Founder Irrevocable Undertakings and the Family Trust Irrevocable Undertaking in respect of the Thirlwell Family Trust, the Founders and the Thirlwell Family Trust have also irrevocably undertaken to elect for the Partial Share Alternative in respect of:

- Angus Thirlwell: 24,473,247 Hotel Chocolat Shares, representing approximately 17.2 per cent. of the fully diluted ordinary share capital of Hotel Chocolat and approximately 76.6 per cent. of his existing holding in Hotel Chocolat;
- Peter Harris: 14,233,323 Hotel Chocolat Shares, representing approximately 10.0 per cent. of the fully diluted ordinary share capital of Hotel Chocolat and approximately 44.5 per cent. of his existing holding in Hotel Chocolat;
- Thirlwell Family Trust: 3,993,399 Hotel Chocolat Shares, representing approximately 2.8 per cent. of the fully diluted ordinary share capital of Hotel Chocolat and approximately 75.3 per cent. of the trust’s existing holding in Hotel Chocolat.

The Founder Irrevocable Undertakings also extend to any Hotel Chocolat Shares acquired by a Founder as a result of the vesting of awards or the exercise of options under the Hotel Chocolat Share Schemes.

The Founder Irrevocable Undertakings and the Family Trust Irrevocable Undertakings will remain binding in the event that a higher competing offer is made for Hotel Chocolat and will cease to be binding only if the Scheme lapses or is withdrawn.

Other Hotel Chocolat Directors

In addition to the Founder Irrevocable Undertakings, Bidco has received irrevocable undertakings from all of the other Hotel Chocolat Directors who are interested in Hotel Chocolat Shares to vote (or procure the voting) in favour of the Scheme at the Court Meeting and the Resolutions at the General Meeting (or, in the event that the Acquisition is implemented by way of the Takeover Offer, to accept, or procure the acceptance of, the Takeover Offer) in respect of 14,413 Hotel Chocolat Shares, representing, in aggregate, approximately 0.01 per cent. of the existing issued ordinary share capital as at 15 November 2023, being the last Business Day prior to this announcement, and the entire holdings of such directors.

These irrevocable undertakings from the Hotel Chocolat Directors will cease to be binding only if the Scheme lapses or is withdrawn, and they remain binding in the event that a higher competing offer for Hotel Chocolat is made.

Other Hotel Chocolat Shareholders

Phoenix has committed and/or indicated its support for the Acquisition in respect of all Hotel Chocolat Shares under its investment management control representing, in aggregate, approximately 15.4 per cent. of the existing issued ordinary share capital of Hotel Chocolat as at 15 November 2023, being the last Business Day prior to this announcement. This comprises: (i) an irrevocable undertaking from Phoenix to vote (or procure the voting) in favour of the Scheme at the Court Meeting and the Resolutions at the General Meeting (or, in the event that the Acquisition is implemented by way of the Takeover Offer, to accept, or procure the acceptance of, the Takeover Offer) in respect of 14,349,649 Hotel Chocolat Shares representing approximately 10.4 per cent. of the existing issued ordinary share capital of Hotel Chocolat (the “Phoenix Irrevocable Undertaking”); and (ii) a non-binding letter of intent from Phoenix to vote (or procure the voting) in favour of the Scheme at the Court Meeting and the Resolutions at the General Meeting (or, in the event that the Acquisition is implemented by way of the Takeover Offer, to accept the Takeover Offer) in respect of 6,878,383 Hotel Chocolat Shares representing approximately 5.0 per cent. of the existing issued ordinary share capital of Hotel Chocolat, in each case as at 15 November 2023, being the last Business Day prior to this announcement.

The Phoenix Irrevocable Undertaking will remain binding in the event that a higher competing offer for Hotel Chocolat is made and will cease to be binding only if the Scheme lapses or is withdrawn. Pursuant to the Phoenix Irrevocable Undertaking, Phoenix has also irrevocably undertaken not to elect for the Partial Share Alternative in respect of the Hotel Chocolat Shares which are subject to the Phoenix Irrevocable Undertaking.

Further details of these irrevocable undertakings (including the circumstances in which they may lapse) and the letter of intent are set out in Appendix 3 to this announcement.

8. Information relating to Hotel Chocolat

Hotel Chocolat is a premium British chocolate maker with a strong and distinctive direct to consumer brand. The business was founded in 1993 by Angus Thirlwell and Peter Harris, who remain directors of Hotel Chocolat, and has traded under the Hotel Chocolat brand since 2003. Hotel Chocolat manufactures premium chocolate and cocoa-related products and sells its products online, through a network of stores in the UK and abroad, and through selected wholesale partners. Hotel Chocolat has 131 stores in the UK, as well as cafés, restaurants, outlets, factory stores, and an eco-hotel on its working cacao farm in St Lucia. Hotel Chocolat also has 21 stores in Japan, operated through a brand licencing and supply agreement with a local partner. Through this integrated model, Hotel Chocolat is involved in each stage of chocolate, from working with partner farmers, to designing and innovating new products, to making, distributing and engaging customers through its own direct channels.

9. Intentions of Mars

As described in paragraph 3 above, Mars believes that Hotel Chocolat would be better suited to developing its business under private ownership as part of the Bidco Group, with better access to the committed, long-term capital required to deliver Hotel Chocolat's growth ambitions and without the costs and constraints associated with its current public status. Mars is confident that the Hotel Chocolat Group would benefit from being part of a like-minded, entrepreneurial, purpose-led, family-owned group of businesses with extensive international expertise, infrastructure and relationships.

Following the Effective Date, Mars intends to maintain Hotel Chocolat's brand and to support its continued delivery of high quality, premium products to consumers through both physical and digital routes to market.

Prior to this announcement and consistent with market practice, Mars has been granted access to certain Hotel Chocolat information and to Hotel Chocolat's senior management for the purposes of confirmatory due diligence. However, because of applicable regulatory controls and the constraints of a public offer process, Mars has not yet had access to sufficiently detailed information to formulate detailed plans or intentions regarding the impact of the Acquisition on the Hotel Chocolat Group.

Following the Effective Date, Mars intends to work with Hotel Chocolat's management to undertake a detailed evaluation of the Hotel Chocolat Group and its operations in order to determine how its short and long-term strategic objectives can best be delivered. Mars expects that this evaluation will be undertaken within approximately 12 months from the Effective Date.

Whilst the parameters of the evaluation have not yet been finalised, it is expected to include the following areas:

- evaluating in more detail Hotel Chocolat's existing organisational structure, strategy, and marketing, supply chain and procurement, development and delivery capabilities;
- considering how best to position the business and assessing potential opportunities that may support Hotel Chocolat's growth ambitions (including, where appropriate, considering opportunities for expansion in new markets in complementary new geographies); and
- assessing the opportunities to enhance the efficiency of business processes and structures of the Hotel Chocolat Group.

The outcomes of the review could include investment in people and assets to grow the business sustainably over the long-term, as well as efficiency in operations to ensure that Hotel Chocolat is operating in line with industry best practice and operational and commercial enhancements drawing on Mars' expertise and capabilities.

Employees and management

Mars attaches great importance and value to the skills, experience and commitment of the Hotel Chocolat Group's management and employees and recognises that the management and employees of the Hotel Chocolat Group will continue to be an important factor in maximising the success and growth of the business going forward.

Mars expects the Hotel Chocolat Group's management and employees to continue to contribute to the success of the Hotel Chocolat Group following the Effective Date and anticipates that they will benefit from greater opportunities as a result of the Acquisition. As part of this, Mars intends that Angus Thirlwell will continue as Chief Executive Officer of the Hotel Chocolat business following the Effective Date. Mars understands that Peter Harris intends to retire following the Effective Date, but expects that he will remain with the Hotel Chocolat business for a handover period, in a consulting role to support his successor.

Except as described below, Mars does not envisage making any material reduction to Hotel Chocolat's overall headcount or to the balance of skills and functions of the management and employees of the Hotel Chocolat Group, including employees engaged in Hotel Chocolat's existing retail stores and manufacturing, distribution and packing facilities in the UK (other than in the ordinary course of business).

However, once Hotel Chocolat ceases to be a listed company and becomes part of the Mars family of companies, a limited number of back-office and listed company functions may be reduced in scope or become unnecessary. Given that some of these functions are outsourced or involve very few employees, the number of employment roles within the Hotel Chocolat Group potentially affected is likely to be small. Further details of any reductions or changes will be considered as part of Mars' detailed evaluation described above. To the extent that Mars proceeds with any such reductions or changes, it intends to consult with relevant Hotel Chocolat employees and employee representatives as required by applicable law.

Mars expects that the members of the board of directors of Hotel Chocolat Group plc will resign from office as directors of Hotel Chocolat Group plc with effect from the Effective Date.

Existing employment rights and pensions

Mars intends to safeguard the existing contractual and statutory employment and pensions rights of the management and the employees of the Hotel Chocolat Group in accordance with applicable law and does not intend to make any material change to the conditions of employment of the management and employees of the Hotel Chocolat Group.

Hotel Chocolat does not operate or contribute to any defined benefit pension schemes in respect of its management and employees. It does, however, contribute to a defined contribution pension plan. Mars does not intend to make any material changes to Hotel Chocolat's existing employer pension contribution arrangements, the accrual of benefits for existing members or the rights of admission of new members.

Management incentivisation arrangements

Mars intends to put in place incentivisation arrangements for certain members of the Hotel Chocolat Group's management following the Effective Date and has confirmed that intention orally to Hotel Chocolat. Mars has not entered into, and has not held any discussions on the terms, content, scope, or form of its proposals in relation to any such incentivisation arrangements. Any discussions with Hotel Chocolat's management about the terms, content, scope or form of such incentivisation arrangements will not take place until after the Effective Date.

Headquarters, locations and fixed assets

Mars admires Hotel Chocolat's strong brand appeal and its commitment to the UK market. As a result, Mars intends to maintain and continue to support Hotel Chocolat's business in the UK after the Effective Date.

Mars does not intend the Acquisition to result in a material reduction in the retail or manufacturing footprint of Hotel Chocolat in the United Kingdom or a redeployment of the fixed assets of Hotel Chocolat. In particular:

- Mars intends to continue to invest in the Hotel Chocolat Group's UK store footprint (including further store openings) as an important component of its growth story. Hotel Chocolat regularly evaluates its portfolio of stores (including plans for further store openings) in the ordinary course and Mars intends to continue to do the same following the Effective Date in the ordinary course and as part of the detailed evaluation described above.

- Mars intends to retain Hotel Chocolat's: factory space in Huntingdon, UK; distribution and packing centres in Northampton, UK and in St Neots, UK; design space in London, UK; and Rabot Estate (including the Rabot Hotel) in St Lucia.
- Mars intends to maintain Hotel Chocolat's UK headquarters in Royston, UK. The global headquarters of Mars' Snacking business (of which Bidco will be part) are expected to remain in Chicago, Illinois, USA.

Research and development

Mars understands the importance of research and development to Hotel Chocolat's high-quality product ranges and continued new product development. Mars therefore intends to maintain the research and development functions of Hotel Chocolat, subject to reviewing such functions in further detail as part of the detailed evaluation described above in order to evaluate opportunities for integrating and enhancing the capabilities of that function within Mars following the Effective Date.

Sustainability

Mars admires Hotel Chocolat's commitment to sustainability across its business as highlighted by its existing environmental, carbon and packaging targets and investment in sustainable farming and supply chain initiatives. Mars considers Hotel Chocolat's stated focus on sustainability to be an important area of cultural alignment with Mars' business, and Mars intends to continue to support the Hotel Chocolat business in pursuing sustainability initiatives following the Effective Date.

Trading facilities

Hotel Chocolat Shares are currently traded on AIM and, as set out in paragraph 17 of this announcement, it is intended that a request will be made to the London Stock Exchange to cancel trading in Hotel Chocolat's Shares on AIM, with effect shortly following the Effective Date. As stated in paragraph 17 of this announcement, dealings in Hotel Chocolat Shares will be suspended shortly prior to the Effective Date and thereafter there will be no trading facilities in relation to Hotel Chocolat Shares from that time.

No statement in this paragraph 9 constitutes a post-offer undertaking for the purposes of Rule 19.5 of the Code.

10. Financing

The cash consideration payable by Bidco to Hotel Chocolat Shareholders under the terms of the Acquisition is expected to be financed by existing cash resources of Mars or its affiliates.

Notwithstanding the above, on 16 November 2023, in order to enable Morgan Stanley to give the confirmation referred to in Rule 2.7(d) of the Code, Mars and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. entered into the Acquisition Facility Agreement, pursuant to which an up to £375,000,000 term facility is available to Mars to be drawn to finance the cash consideration payable pursuant to the Acquisition (and to finance fees, costs and expenses in connection with the Acquisition). To the extent the Acquisition is not funded by existing cash resources of Mars or its affiliates, the Acquisition Facility Agreement will be drawn down and Mars has agreed to use the funds received under the Acquisition Facility Agreement to the extent necessary to fund (directly or indirectly) Bidco with the cash consideration payable by Bidco to Hotel Chocolat Shareholders under the terms of the Acquisition.

Morgan Stanley, in its capacity as financial adviser to Bidco and Mars, confirms that it is satisfied that sufficient resources are available to Bidco to satisfy in full the cash consideration payable to Hotel Chocolat Shareholders under the terms of the Acquisition.

Further information on the financing of the Acquisition will be set out in the Scheme Document.

11. Hotel Chocolat Share Schemes

Participants in the Hotel Chocolat Share Schemes will be contacted regarding the effect of the Acquisition on their rights and appropriate proposals will be made to such participants in due course. Details of these proposals will be set out in the Scheme Document.

12. Offer-related arrangements

Confidentiality Agreement

Mars and Hotel Chocolat have entered into a confidentiality agreement dated 16 October 2023 pursuant to which each of Mars and Hotel Chocolat has undertaken, amongst other things, to: (a) keep confidential information relating to the Acquisition and the other party and not to disclose it to third parties (other than certain permitted parties) unless required by law or regulation; and (b) use the confidential information only in connection with considering, evaluating, negotiating, implementing or advising on the potential Acquisition. These confidentiality obligations remain in force until two years from the date of the Confidentiality Agreement. The agreement also contains provisions pursuant to which each party has agreed not to solicit certain employees of the other party, subject to customary carve-outs, for a period of 12 months.

Cooperation Agreement

Bidco and Hotel Chocolat have entered into a cooperation agreement dated 16 November 2023, pursuant to which, among other things, Bidco and Hotel Chocolat have each agreed to certain undertakings to co-operate and provide each other with reasonable information, assistance and access in relation to any filings, submissions and notifications to be made in relation to regulatory clearances and authorisations.

The Cooperation Agreement records the parties' intentions to implement the Acquisition by way of Scheme, subject to the ability of Bidco to implement the Acquisition by way of a Takeover Offer in certain circumstances set out in the Cooperation Agreement and with the consent of the Panel.

The Cooperation Agreement will be capable of termination by either party in certain circumstances, including if the Scheme does not become Effective by the Long-Stop Date, a competing transaction completes, becomes effective or is declared or becomes unconditional, any Condition has been invoked by Bidco (in circumstances where invocation of the relevant Condition is permitted by the Panel) prior to the Long-Stop Date or if the Acquisition is withdrawn or lapses in accordance with its terms prior to the Long-Stop Date.

In addition, Bidco may terminate the Cooperation Agreement on written notice to Hotel Chocolat in certain circumstances, including where the Hotel Chocolat Directors have publicly withdrawn, adversely qualified, adversely modified or failed to reaffirm or re-issue (when reasonably requested by Bidco to do so) their unanimous recommendation that Hotel Chocolat Shareholders vote in favour of the Scheme or a competing transaction is recommended by the Hotel Chocolat Directors.

Pursuant to the terms of the Cooperation Agreement, Bidco has undertaken that it will deliver a notice in writing to Hotel Chocolat on the Business Day prior to the Scheme Court Hearing confirming either: (i) the satisfaction or waiver of all Conditions (other than Condition 2(c)); or (ii) if permitted by the Panel, that it intends to invoke one or more Conditions.

The Cooperation Agreement also contains provisions that will apply in respect of the Hotel Chocolat Share Schemes and certain other employee incentive arrangements.

Clean Team Agreement

Mars and Hotel Chocolat have entered into a due diligence clean team agreement dated 24 October 2023, which sets out how any confidential information that is commercially sensitive can be disclosed, used or shared for the purposes of due diligence, integration planning and regulatory analysis and any associated clearance processes. Such commercially sensitive information must only be made available to the party receiving information through designated persons removed from day-to-day commercial or strategic operations and decisions and external professional advisers. The findings of such designated persons and external advisers may only be relayed to other employees, officers and directors of the receiving party in specified circumstances and subject to certain restrictions.

Confidentiality and Joint Defence Agreement

Mars, Hotel Chocolat and their respective legal advisers have entered into a Confidentiality and Joint Defence Agreement dated 25 October 2023, the purpose of which is to ensure that the exchange and/or disclosure of certain materials relating to the parties only takes place between their respective external legal advisers and external experts, and does not diminish in any way the confidentiality of such materials and does not result in a waiver of privilege, right or immunity that might otherwise be available.

In addition, Hotel Chocolat Shareholders who wish to elect for the Partial Share Alternative will be required to provide certain “Know Your Client” information as requested by Bidco and Mars. Further details of this eligibility requirement will be set out in the Scheme Document.

The issue of any Rollover Shares pursuant to the Partial Share Alternative will be in accordance with the mechanism described in paragraph 14 below and subject to the Conditions and further terms set out in Appendix 1 to this announcement and to be set out in the Scheme Document. Further details regarding Bidco and the rights of the Rollover Shares are set out in paragraphs 14 and 15 below and in Appendix 4 to this announcement.

For the purposes of Rule 24.11 of the Code, Morgan Stanley, as financial adviser to Bidco, will provide an estimate of the value of a Rollover Share, together with the assumptions, qualifications and caveats forming the basis of its estimate of value, in a letter to be included in the Scheme Document.

If the Acquisition becomes Effective, Hotel Chocolat Shareholders who do not validly elect for the Partial Share Alternative will automatically receive cash consideration due under the Cash Offer for their entire holding of Hotel Chocolat Shares.

14. Structure of the Partial Share Alternative

Bidco share capital as a result of the Acquisition

The current share capital of Bidco consists of 100 shares of common stock (the “Initial Bidco Shares”). On or around the Effective Date, Bidco will issue around 142,333,230 Bidco Shares (the “Bidco Offer Shares”) and the Initial Bidco Shares will be cancelled. If the Partial Share Alternative (including any Bidco A Shares or Rollover Shares already in issue) were taken up in full by eligible Hotel Chocolat Shareholders, and assuming the amount of Hotel Chocolat Shares issued pursuant to the Hotel Chocolat Share Schemes prior to the Effective Date is consistent with the calculation set out in Appendix 2 to this announcement, Bidco would issue around:

- (a) 99,633,261 Bidco A Shares to Mars Snacking Holdings to fund the cash consideration and costs and expenses payable in respect of the Acquisition; and
- (b) 42,699,969 Rollover Shares to those eligible Hotel Chocolat Shareholders who validly elect to receive the Partial Share Alternative.

Terms of Issue of Rollover Shares

The Rollover Shares to be issued to eligible Hotel Chocolat Shareholders who validly elect for the Partial Share Alternative will be issued credited as fully paid and will rank economically pari passu with the Bidco A Shares being issued to Mars Snacking Holdings pursuant to the Acquisition as described above, including the right to receive and retain dividends and other distributions declared, made or paid (if any) by reference to a record date falling on or after the date of this announcement.

15. Risk factors and other investment considerations in respect of the Partial Share Alternative Eligible Hotel Chocolat Shareholders who elect for the Partial Share Alternative will, pursuant to a power of attorney to be included in the Form of Election and/or the Scheme, deliver a fully executed deed of adherence pursuant to which they will be bound by the Bidco Shareholders' Agreement. A summary of the key rights of the Rollover Shares is set out in Appendix 4.

In addition, the attention of eligible Hotel Chocolat Shareholders who may be considering electing for the Partial Share Alternative is drawn to certain risk factors and other investment considerations relevant to such an election. These will be set out in full in the Scheme Document and include, inter alia, the following:

- (a) upon the Effective Date, the Bidco Group will be controlled by Mars Snacking Holdings. Holders of the Rollover Shares, which will not carry any general voting rights at general meetings of Bidco nor any right to receive a copy of or vote on written resolutions of shareholders of Bidco and will have consent rights only in respect of a very limited number of reserved matters (exercisable only by a supermajority of Rollover Shareholders), will therefore have no influence over decisions made by Bidco in relation to its investment in Hotel Chocolat or in any other business;
- (b) the Rollover Shares are unquoted and will not be listed or admitted to trading on any exchange or market for the trading of securities, and will therefore be illiquid;
- (c) the Rollover Shares will have very limited transfer rights. They will not be transferable during the Lock-Up Period (save in very limited circumstances in relation to certain put and call options, to certain Associates or otherwise with the prior consent of Mars Snacking Holdings). Following the Lock-Up Period, a holder of Rollover Shares shall be entitled to transfer its Rollover Shares (provided that any such transfer is for all (but not only part) of the Rollover Shares held by such Rollover Shareholder and any of its Associates), subject to a right of first refusal in favour of Mars Snacking Holdings and to certain other restrictions including, but not limited to, in respect of the identity of the proposed transferee;
- (d) the value of the Rollover Shares will at all times be uncertain and there can be no assurance that any such securities will be capable of being sold in the future (other than pursuant to the put and call options described in Appendix 4) or that they will be capable of being sold at the value to be estimated by Morgan Stanley in the Scheme Document;
- (e) payments in respect of Rollover Shares will not be guaranteed or secured and it is not anticipated that Bidco will declare or pay any distributions on any of the Rollover Shares prior to the end of the final call option exercise period described in Appendix 4;

- (f) in relation to any further issues of securities, if holders of Rollover Shares wish to avoid their percentage interest in Bidco being reduced by any such issue, they will need to invest further cash sums in the Bidco Group. In particular, Rollover Shareholders who do not elect to exercise their pre-emption rights or catch-up rights by investing the necessary cash sums in respect of any further issues of securities by the Bidco Group will suffer significant dilution in their percentage ownership;
- (g) the right of Rollover Shareholders to participate in future issues of securities by the Bidco Group will also be subject to other important exceptions. For example:
 - (i) holders of Rollover Shares will not be entitled to participate in any issues of securities to actual or potential employees, directors, officers or consultants of the Bidco Group (whether of the same or different classes to the Rollover Shares);
 - (ii) if Bidco introduces one or more management incentive plans for actual or potential employees, directors, officers and consultants of the Bidco Group after the Effective Date that provide participants with an interest in securities in the Bidco Group, such issue(s) could potentially significantly dilute the Rollover Shares. In addition, the Bidco Group may not receive material cash sums on the issue of any such securities and the returns on any such securities may potentially be structured to increase their proportionate interest in the value of the Bidco Group as it increases in value (whether pursuant to a ratchet mechanism or otherwise); and
 - (iii) the holders of Rollover Shares will not be entitled to participate in issues of securities by the Bidco Group in certain other cases, including in consideration for, or in connection with, its acquisition of other assets, companies or all or part of any other businesses or undertakings;
- (h) the holders of Rollover Shares will enjoy only limited minority protections or other rights (as summarised in Appendix 4);
- (i) holders of Rollover Shares may be required at some point following the Lock-Up Period to sell their Rollover Shares under the terms of a “drag along” provision in the Bidco Shareholders’ Agreement;
- (j) it is possible that Mars Snacking Holdings may dispose of some or all of its Bidco A Shares during the Lock-Up Period and in such circumstances no “tag along” rights will apply to Rollover Shareholders;
- (k) Mars Snacking Holdings will have a call option over a percentage of Rollover Shares held by each Rollover Shareholder during the pre-determined Option Exercise Periods. The call option could be exercised at a value that is less than holders of Rollover Shares may receive for a sale at another time;

- (l) the amount payable by Mars Snacking Holdings to Rollover Shareholders in respect of any purchase of Rollover Shares on the exercise of any of the put or call options described in Appendix 4 will depend on the future performance of the Hotel Chocolat business under the Bidco Group's ownership. This remains uncertain and could result in the amount received being less than the cash consideration foregone under the Cash Offer;
- (m) individual Rollover Shareholders will have limited control over the date(s) on and value(s) at which they may be able to realise their investment in the Bidco Group and, in particular, only Original Rollover Shareholders holding 5 per cent. or more of the Bidco Shares issued at or around the Effective Date may defer the exercise of their put option rights in any Interim Option Exercise Period;
- (n) individual Rollover Shareholders will not have a right to challenge the Option Price (as defined in Appendix 4) and any challenge by the Rollover Shareholder Representative may, if unsuccessful, result in a lower valuation for the put and call options and/or reduce the cash amount payable in relation to the put and call options in any relevant Option Exercise Period;
- (o) the Hotel Chocolat Shares are currently admitted to trading on AIM and Hotel Chocolat Shareholders are afforded certain standards and protections, including in respect of disclosure, as a result. Hotel Chocolat Shareholders who receive Rollover Shares (being unlisted securities in a private company) will not be afforded protections commensurate with those that they currently benefit from as shareholders in Hotel Chocolat, including because Bidco intends to rely on an exemption from registration under US securities laws and will therefore not be registering the Rollover Shares with the US Securities and Exchange Commission. Except for the information to be provided to the Rollover Shareholder Representative (but not to other Rollover Shareholders) in connection with the put and call options as described in Appendix 4, neither the Bidco Organisational Documents nor the Bidco Shareholders' Agreement will provide holders of Rollover Shares with information rights;
- (p) there can be no certainty or guarantee as to the performance of the Bidco Group or the Hotel Chocolat Group following the Effective Date (including, for the avoidance of doubt, whether or the extent to which any of the EBITDA Values or Low-End EBITDA Values relevant to calculation of the put and call options will be met), and past performance cannot be relied upon as an indication of future performance or growth; and
- (q) Hotel Chocolat Shareholders will have no certainty as to the amount of Rollover Shares they would receive because:
 - (i) the maximum number of Rollover Shares available to Hotel Chocolat Shareholders under the Partial Share Alternative will be limited to the equivalent of 30 per cent. of the Bidco Offer Shares; and
 - (ii) to the extent that elections for the Partial Share Alternative cannot be satisfied in full, the number of Rollover Shares to be issued to each eligible Hotel Chocolat Shareholder who has elected for the Partial

Share Alternative will be reduced on a pro rata basis, and the consideration for each Hotel Chocolat Share that is not exchanged for Rollover Shares will be paid in cash in accordance with the terms of the Cash Offer.

Further information relating to Bidco and the Rollover Shares is set out in Appendix 4 below.

16. Structure of and conditions to the Acquisition

It is intended that the Acquisition will be implemented by way of a Court-sanctioned scheme of arrangement between Hotel Chocolat and the Scheme Shareholders, under Part 26 of the Companies Act. The procedure involves, among other things, an application by Hotel Chocolat to the Court to sanction the Scheme.

The purpose of the Scheme is to provide for Bidco to become the owner of the entire issued and to be issued share capital of Hotel Chocolat. This is to be achieved by the transfer of Hotel Chocolat Shares to Bidco in consideration for which Hotel Chocolat Shareholders will receive the cash consideration due under the Cash Offer and/or (subject to valid election) Rollover Shares on the terms and conditions set out in paragraph 2 above, in each case to be effected pursuant to the Scheme. The transfer to Bidco of the Hotel Chocolat Shares is intended to result in Hotel Chocolat becoming a wholly-owned subsidiary of Bidco.

Conditions to the Acquisition

The Scheme and Acquisition will be subject to the Conditions and certain further terms referred to in Appendix 1 to this announcement and to be set out in the Scheme Document when issued. In particular, the Scheme will only become Effective if, among other things, the following events occur on or before 11.59pm (London time) on the Long-Stop Date:

- (a) a resolution to approve the Scheme is passed by a majority in number of, representing 75 per cent. in value of the Hotel Chocolat Shares voted by, Scheme Shareholders present and voting (and entitled to vote) at the Court Meeting, either in person or by proxy;
- (b) the Resolutions are passed by the requisite majority of Hotel Chocolat Shareholders at the General Meeting;
- (c) the Scheme is sanctioned by the Court (without modification, or with modification on terms agreed by Bidco and Hotel Chocolat); and
- (d) following the sanction by the Court, a copy of the Scheme Court Order is delivered to the Registrar of Companies.

Additionally, the Scheme will lapse if, amongst other things:

- (a) the Court Meeting and/or General Meeting are not held on or before the 22nd day after the expected date of such meetings, which will be set out in the Scheme Document in due course (or such later date as may be agreed by Bidco and Hotel Chocolat with the consent of the Panel and, if required, with the consent of the Court);

- (b) the Scheme Court Hearing is not held on or before the 22nd day after the expected date of such hearing, which will be set out in the Scheme Document in due course (or such later date as may be agreed by Bidco and Hotel Chocolat with the consent of the Panel and, if required, with the consent of the Court);
or
- (c) the Scheme does not become Effective on or before 11.59pm (London time) on the Long-Stop Date.

Bidco may only invoke a Condition so as to cause the Acquisition not to proceed, lapse or to be withdrawn with the consent of the Panel. Certain Conditions are not subject to this requirement. Further details are set out in Parts A and B of Appendix 1.

Upon the Scheme becoming Effective: (i) it will be binding on all Scheme Shareholders, irrespective of whether or not they attended or voted at the Court Meeting or the General Meeting (and if they attended and voted, whether or not they voted in favour); and (ii) share certificates in respect of Hotel Chocolat Shares will cease to be valid and entitlements to Hotel Chocolat Shares held within the CREST system will be cancelled.

If the Scheme does not become Effective on or before 11.59pm (London time) on the Long-Stop Date, it will lapse and the Acquisition will not proceed (unless Bidco and Hotel Chocolat otherwise agree and the Panel otherwise consents).

The Scheme Document will include full details of the Scheme, together with notices of the Court Meeting and the General Meeting. The Scheme Document will also contain the expected timetable for the Acquisition and will specify the necessary actions to be taken by Hotel Chocolat Shareholders. It is expected that the Scheme Document, together with the Forms of Proxy and the Form of Election, will be posted to Hotel Chocolat Shareholders and, for information only, to persons with information rights and to holders of options and awards granted under the Hotel Chocolat Share Schemes within 28 days of this announcement (or such later time as Bidco and Hotel Chocolat and the Panel may agree). Subject, amongst other things, to the satisfaction or (where applicable) waiver of the Conditions, it is expected that the Scheme will become effective by Q1 2024.

17. Delisting and re-registration

It is intended that an application will be made to the London Stock Exchange for the cancellation of trading of the Hotel Chocolat Shares on AIM, with effect shortly following the Effective Date.

The last day for dealings in Hotel Chocolat Shares on AIM of the London Stock Exchange is expected to be the last Business Day immediately prior to the Effective Date and no transfers shall be registered after 6.00 p.m. (London time) on that date.

It is also intended that, following the Effective Date, Hotel Chocolat will be re-registered as a private limited company under the relevant provisions of the Companies Act.

18. Disclosure of interests in Hotel Chocolat relevant securities

Except for the irrevocable undertakings referred to in paragraph 6 above, as at close of business on 15 November 2023 (being the last Business Day prior to the date of this announcement), save as disclosed below, neither Bidco, nor any of the directors of Bidco or any member of the Bidco Group, nor, so far as the directors of Bidco are aware, any person acting in concert with Bidco for the purposes of the Acquisition had any interest in, right to subscribe for, or had borrowed or lent any Hotel Chocolat Shares or securities convertible or exchangeable into Hotel Chocolat Shares, nor did any such person have any short position (whether conditional or absolute and whether in the money or otherwise), including any short position under a derivative, any agreement to sell or any delivery obligation or right to require another person to take delivery, or any dealing arrangement of the kind referred to in Note 11 of the definition of acting in concert in the Code, in relation to Hotel Chocolat Shares or in relation to any securities convertible or exchangeable into Hotel Chocolat Shares.

In the interests of secrecy prior to this announcement, it has not been possible for Bidco to make enquiries in respect of the matters referred to in this paragraph of all parties who may be deemed or presumed by the Panel to be acting in concert with Bidco for the purposes of the Acquisition. Enquiries of such parties will be made as soon as practicable following the date of this announcement and any disclosure in respect of such parties will be included in the Opening Position Disclosure.

19. Overseas shareholders

The availability of the Acquisition (including the Partial Share Alternative) and the distribution of this announcement to Hotel Chocolat Shareholders who are not resident in the United Kingdom may be affected by the laws of the relevant jurisdiction. Such persons should inform themselves of, and observe, any applicable legal or regulatory requirements of their jurisdiction. Hotel Chocolat Shareholders who are in any doubt regarding such matters should consult an appropriate independent professional adviser in the relevant jurisdiction without delay.

This announcement does not constitute an offer for sale of any securities or an offer or an invitation to purchase any securities. Hotel Chocolat Shareholders are advised to read carefully the Scheme Document and related Forms of Proxy and Form of Election once these have been dispatched.

21. General

Bidco reserves the right to elect, with the consent of the Panel and in accordance with the Cooperation Agreement, to implement the Acquisition by way of a Takeover Offer for the entire issued and to be issued share capital of Hotel Chocolat not already held by Bidco as an alternative to the Scheme. In such an event, the Takeover Offer will be implemented on the same terms (subject to appropriate amendments), so far as applicable, as those which would apply to the Scheme subject to appropriate amendments, including (without limitation) an acceptance condition set at 75 per cent. of the Hotel Chocolat Shares (or such other lower percentage (being more than 50 per cent.) as Bidco may, subject to the rules of the Code and the terms of the Cooperation Agreement and with the consent of the Panel, decide). If the Acquisition is effected by way of a Takeover Offer and such Takeover Offer becomes or is declared unconditional and sufficient acceptances are received, Bidco intends to: (i) make a request to the London Stock Exchange to cancel trading in Hotel Chocolat Shares on AIM; and (ii) exercise its rights to apply the provisions of Chapter 3 of Part 28 of the Companies Act to acquire compulsorily the remaining Hotel Chocolat Shares in respect of which the Takeover Offer has not been accepted.

The Scheme will be governed by English law and will be subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales. The Scheme will be subject to the applicable requirements of the Code, the Panel, the London Stock Exchange, the AIM Rules and the FCA.

Each of Morgan Stanley, Lazard and Liberum has given and not withdrawn its consent to the inclusion in this announcement of references to its name in the form and context in which it appears.

The Acquisition will be on the terms and subject to the Conditions and certain further terms set out herein and in Appendix 1 and to the full terms and conditions which will be set out in the Scheme Document. The bases and sources of certain financial information contained in this announcement are set out in Appendix 2. Details of the irrevocable undertakings and the non-binding letter of intent received by Bidco in connection with the Acquisition are set out in Appendix 3. Details of Bidco, the Rollover Shares and eligibility to subscribe for the Rollover Shares are set out in Appendix 4. Certain terms used in this announcement are defined in Appendix 5.

The Scheme Document, the Forms of Proxy and the Form of Election accompanying the Scheme Document are expected to be sent to Hotel Chocolat Shareholders within 28 days of this announcement (or on such later time as Bidco, Hotel Chocolat and the Panel may agree). A copy of the Scheme Document is also expected to be sent (for information only) to persons with information rights and participants in the Hotel Chocolat Share Schemes at the same time as it is posted to Hotel Chocolat Shareholders.

The person responsible for arranging the release of this announcement on behalf of Hotel Chocolat is Angus Thirlwell, Chief Executive Officer.

Lazard, which is authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority in the United Kingdom, is acting exclusively as financial adviser and Rule 3 adviser to Hotel Chocolat and no one else in connection with the Acquisition and will not be responsible to anyone other than Hotel Chocolat for providing the protections afforded to clients of Lazard nor for providing advice in relation to the Acquisition or any other matters referred to herein. Overseas jurisdictions

The release, publication or distribution of this announcement in or into jurisdictions other than the UK may be restricted by law and therefore any persons who are subject to the law of any jurisdiction other than the UK should inform themselves about, and observe, any applicable legal or regulatory requirements. In particular the ability of persons who are not resident in the United Kingdom, to vote their Hotel Chocolat Shares with respect to the Scheme at the Court Meeting, or to appoint another person as proxy to vote at the Court Meeting on their behalf, may be affected by the laws of the relevant jurisdictions in which they are located. Any failure to comply with the applicable restrictions may constitute a violation of the securities laws of any such jurisdiction. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the companies and persons involved in the Acquisition disclaim any responsibility or liability for the violation of such restrictions by any person. This announcement has been prepared for the purposes of complying with English law, the AIM Rules and the Code and the information disclosed may not be the same as that which would have been disclosed if this announcement had been prepared in accordance with the laws of jurisdictions outside of England.

Copies of this announcement and formal documentation relating to the Acquisition will not be and must not be, mailed or otherwise forwarded, distributed or sent in, into or from any Restricted Jurisdiction or any jurisdiction where to do so would violate the laws of that jurisdiction and persons receiving such documents (including custodians, nominees and trustees) must not mail or otherwise forward, distribute or send them in or into or from any Restricted Jurisdiction. Doing so may render invalid any related purported vote in respect of the Acquisition. If the Acquisition is implemented by way of Takeover Offer (unless otherwise permitted by applicable law or regulation), the Takeover Offer may not be made, directly or indirectly, in or into or by use of the mails or any other means or instrumentality (including, without limitation, facsimile, email or other electronic transmission, telex or telephone) of interstate or foreign commerce of, or any facility of a national, state or other securities exchange of any Restricted Jurisdiction and the Takeover Offer will not be capable of acceptance by any such use, means, instrumentality or facilities or from within any Restricted Jurisdiction.

The availability of the Acquisition (including the Partial Share Alternative) to Hotel Chocolat Shareholders who are not resident in the United Kingdom may be affected by the laws of the relevant jurisdictions in which they are resident. Persons who are not resident in the United Kingdom should inform themselves of, and observe, any applicable requirements.

Further details in relation to Overseas Shareholders will be contained in the Scheme Document.

The Acquisition shall be subject to the applicable requirements of the Code, the Panel, the London Stock Exchange, the FCA and the AIM Rules.

Additional information for US investors

The Acquisition is being made to acquire the shares of an English company by means of a scheme of arrangement provided for under English law. A transaction effected by means of a scheme of arrangement is not subject to the tender offer rules or the proxy solicitation rules under the US Exchange Act. Accordingly, the Scheme will be subject to disclosure requirements and practices applicable in the UK to schemes of arrangement, which are different from the disclosure requirements of the US tender offer and proxy solicitation rules. The financial information included in this announcement and the Scheme documentation has been or will have been prepared in accordance with accounting standards applicable in the United Kingdom and thus may not be comparable to financial information of US companies or companies whose financial statements are prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the US. If Bidco exercises its right to implement the acquisition of the Hotel Chocolat Shares by way of a Takeover Offer, such offer will be made in compliance with applicable US laws and regulations.

The receipt of cash pursuant to the Acquisition by a US holder as consideration for the transfer of its Hotel Chocolat Shares pursuant to the Scheme will likely be a taxable transaction for United States federal income tax purposes and under applicable United States state and local, as well as foreign and other, tax laws. Each Hotel Chocolat Shareholder is urged to consult their independent professional adviser immediately regarding the tax consequences of the Acquisition applicable to them.

The Rollover Shares issued under the Partial Share Alternative will not be registered under the US Securities Act of 1933 (the “Securities Act”). Bidco expects to issue the Rollover Shares in reliance upon the exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act provided by Section 3(a)(10) thereof (“Section 3(a)(10)”). Section 3(a)(10) exempts securities issued in specified exchange transactions from the registration requirement under the Securities Act where, among other things, the fairness of the terms and conditions of the issuance and exchange of such securities have been approved by a court or governmental authority expressly authorised by law to grant such approval, after a hearing upon the fairness of the terms and conditions of the exchange at which all persons to whom the Rollover Shares are proposed to be issued have the right to appear and receive adequate and timely notice thereof. If Bidco exercises its right to implement the acquisition of the Hotel Chocolat Shares by way of a Takeover Offer, the Rollover Shares will not be offered in the United States except pursuant to an exemption from or in a transaction not subject to registration under the Securities Act.

The Rollover Shares that may be issued pursuant to the Acquisition have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act or under the relevant securities laws of any state or territory or other jurisdiction of the United States and will not be listed on any stock exchange. Neither the US Securities and Exchange Commission nor any US state securities commission has approved or disapproved of the Partial Share Alternative or determined if the Scheme Document is accurate or complete. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offence.

In accordance with normal UK practice and pursuant to Rule 14e-5(b) of the US Exchange Act (to the extent applicable), Bidco or its nominees, or its brokers (acting as agents), may from time to time make certain purchases of, or arrangements to purchase, Hotel Chocolat Shares outside of the US, other than pursuant to the Acquisition, until the date on which the Acquisition and/or Scheme becomes effective, lapses or is otherwise withdrawn. If such purchases or arrangements to purchase were to be made, they would be made outside of the US and would be in accordance with applicable law, including the US Exchange Act and the Code. These purchases may occur either in the open market at prevailing prices or in private transactions at negotiated prices. Any information about such purchases will be disclosed as required in the UK, will be reported to a Regulatory Information Service and will be available on the London Stock Exchange website at www.londonstockexchange.com.

Forward looking statements

This announcement (including information incorporated by reference in this announcement), oral statements made regarding the Acquisition, and other information published by Bidco, Mars and Hotel Chocolat contain statements which are, or may be deemed to be, “forward-looking statements”. Forward-looking statements are prospective in nature and are not based on historical facts, but rather on current expectations and projections of the management of Bidco, Mars and Hotel Chocolat about future events, and are therefore subject to risks and uncertainties which could cause actual results to differ materially from the future results expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements. The forward-looking statements contained in this announcement include statements relating to the expected effects of the Acquisition on Bidco, Mars and Hotel Chocolat, the expected timing and scope of the Acquisition and other statements other than historical facts. Often, but not always, forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of forward-looking words such as “plans”, “expects” or “does not expect”, “is expected”, “is subject to”, “budget”, “scheduled”, “estimates”, “forecasts”, “intends”, “goal”, “anticipates” or “does not anticipate”, or “believes”, or variations of such words and phrases or statements that certain actions, events or results “may”, “could”, “should”, “would”, “might” or “will” be taken, occur or be achieved. Although Bidco, Mars and Hotel Chocolat believe that the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements are reasonable, Bidco, Mars and Hotel Chocolat can give no assurance that such expectations will prove to be correct. By their nature, forward-looking statements involve risk and uncertainty because they relate to events and depend on circumstances that will occur in the future. There are a number of factors that could cause actual results and developments to differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Among the factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements are changes in the global, political, economic, business, competitive, market and regulatory forces, future exchange and interest rates, changes in tax rates and future business combinations or dispositions, and any epidemic, pandemic or disease outbreak. Other unknown or unpredictable factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements should therefore be construed in the light of such factors. Neither Bidco, Mars nor Hotel Chocolat, nor any of their respective associates or directors, members, managers, partners, officers or advisers, provides any representation, assurance or guarantee that the occurrence of the events expressed or implied in any forward-looking statements in this announcement will actually occur. You are cautioned not to place any reliance on these forward-looking statements. The forward-looking statements speak only at the date of this announcement. All subsequent oral or written forward-looking statements attributable to Bidco or any member of the Wider Bidco Group or the Hotel Chocolat Group, or any of their respective associates, directors, officers, employees or advisers, are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statement above. Other than in accordance with their legal or regulatory obligations, neither Bidco, Mars or Hotel Chocolat is under any obligation, and Bidco, Mars and Hotel Chocolat expressly disclaim any intention or obligation, to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

Dealing disclosure requirements

Under Rule 8.3(a) of the Code, any person who is interested in 1% or more of any class of relevant securities of an offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror (being any offeror other than an offeror in respect of which it has been announced that its offer is, or is likely to be, solely in cash) must make an Opening Position Disclosure following the commencement of the offer period and, if later, following the announcement in which any securities exchange offeror is first identified. An Opening Position Disclosure must contain details of the person’s interests and short positions in, and rights to subscribe for, any relevant securities of each of (i) the offeree company and (ii) any securities exchange offeror(s). An Opening Position Disclosure by a person to whom Rule 8.3(a) applies must be made by no later than 3.30 pm (London time) on the 10th business day following the commencement of the offer period and, if appropriate, by no later than 3.30 pm (London time) on the 10th business day following the announcement in which any securities exchange offeror is first identified. Relevant persons who deal in the relevant securities of the offeree company or of a securities exchange offeror prior to the deadline for making an Opening Position Disclosure must instead make a Dealing Disclosure.

Under Rule 8.3(b) of the Code, any person who is, or becomes, interested in 1% or more of any class of relevant securities of the offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror must make a Dealing Disclosure if the person deals in any relevant securities of the offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror. A Dealing Disclosure must contain details of the dealing concerned and of the person's interests and short positions in, and rights to subscribe for, any relevant securities of each of (i) the offeree company and (ii) any securities exchange offeror(s), save to the extent that these details have previously been disclosed under Rule 8. A Dealing Disclosure by a person to whom Rule 8.3(b) applies must be made by no later than 3.30 pm (London time) on the business day following the date of the relevant dealing.

If two or more persons act together pursuant to an agreement or understanding, whether formal or informal, to acquire or control an interest in relevant securities of an offeree company or a securities exchange offeror, they will be deemed to be a single person for the purpose of Rule 8.3.

Opening Position Disclosures must also be made by the offeree company and by any offeror and Dealing Disclosures must also be made by the offeree company, by any offeror and by any persons acting in concert with any of them (see Rules 8.1, 8.2 and 8.4).

Details of the offeree and offeror companies in respect of whose relevant securities Opening Position Disclosures and Dealing Disclosures must be made can be found in the Disclosure Table on the Takeover Panel's website at www.thetakeoverpanel.org.uk, including details of the number of relevant securities in issue, when the offer period commenced and when any offeror was first identified. You should contact the Panel's Market Surveillance Unit on +44 (0)20 7638 0129 if you are in any doubt as to whether you are required to make an Opening Position Disclosure or a Dealing Disclosure.

No profit forecasts, estimates or quantified financial benefits statements

No statement in this announcement is intended as a profit forecast, profit estimate or quantified benefits statement for any period and no statement in this announcement should be interpreted to mean that earnings or earnings per share for Bidco, Mars or Hotel Chocolat, as appropriate, for the current or future financial years would necessarily match or exceed the historical published earnings or earnings per share for Bidco, Mars or Hotel Chocolat, as appropriate.

Rounding

Certain figures included in this announcement have been subjected to rounding adjustments. Accordingly, figures shown for the same category presented in different tables may vary slightly and figures shown as totals in certain tables may not be an arithmetic aggregation of figures that precede them.

General

Bidco reserves the right to elect, with the consent of the Panel and subject to the terms of the Cooperation Agreement, to implement the Acquisition by way of a Takeover Offer as an alternative to the Scheme. If the Acquisition is effected by way of a Takeover Offer, and such offer becomes or is declared unconditional and sufficient acceptances are received, Bidco intends to exercise its rights to apply the provisions of Chapter 3 of Part 28 of the Companies Act so as to acquire compulsorily the remaining Hotel Chocolat Shares in respect of which the Takeover Offer has not been accepted.

Investors should be aware that Bidco may purchase Hotel Chocolat Shares otherwise than under any Takeover Offer or the Scheme, including pursuant to privately negotiated purchases.

If you are in any doubt about the contents of this announcement or the action you should take, you are recommended to seek your own independent financial advice immediately from your stockbroker, bank manager, solicitor or independent financial adviser duly authorised under FSMA if you are resident in the United Kingdom or, if not, from another appropriate authorised independent financial adviser.

In addition, subject to as stated in Part B of Appendix 1 below and to the requirements of the Panel, Bidco and Hotel Chocolat have agreed that the Acquisition will be conditional upon the following Conditions and, accordingly, the necessary actions to make the Scheme effective will not be taken unless such Conditions (as amended, if appropriate) have been satisfied or, where relevant, waived:

Anti-corruption, sanctions and criminal property

10. Bidco not having discovered other than as Disclosed that:
- (a) (i) any past or present member, director, officer or employee of the Wider Hotel Chocolat Group is or has at any time engaged in any activity, practice or conduct which would constitute an offence under the Bribery Act 2010, the US Foreign Corrupt Practices Act of 1977 or any other anti-corruption legislation applicable to the Wider Hotel Chocolat Group or (ii) any person that performs or has performed services for or on behalf of the Wider Hotel Chocolat Group is or has at any time engaged in any activity, practice or conduct in connection with the performance of such services which would constitute an offence under the Bribery Act 2010, the US Foreign Corrupt Practices Act of 1977 or any other applicable anti-corruption legislation;
 - (b) any asset of any member of the Wider Hotel Chocolat Group constitutes criminal property as defined by section 340(3) of the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 (but disregarding paragraph (b) of that definition);

- (c) any past or present member, director, officer or employee of the Hotel Chocolat Group, or any other person for whom any such person may be liable or responsible, has engaged in any business with, made any investments in, made any funds or assets available to or received any funds or assets from: (i) any government, entity or individual in respect of which US or European Union persons, or persons operating in those territories, are prohibited from engaging in activities or doing business, or from receiving or making available funds or economic resources, by US or European Union laws or regulations, including the economic sanctions administered by the United States Office of Foreign Assets Control or HM Treasury; or (ii) any government, entity or individual targeted by any of the economic sanctions of the United Nations, the United States, the European Union or any of its member states; or

For the purpose of these Conditions:

- (i) “Third Party” means any central bank, government, government department or governmental, quasi-governmental, supranational, statutory, regulatory, environmental or investigative body, authority (including any national or supranational anti-trust or merger control authority), court, trade agency, association, institution or professional or environmental body or any other person or body whatsoever in any relevant jurisdiction, including, for the avoidance of doubt, the Panel;
- (ii) a Third Party shall be regarded as having “intervened” if it has decided or, if applicable, given notice of a decision, to take, institute, implement or threaten any action, proceeding, suit, investigation, enquiry or reference or made, proposed or enacted any statute, regulation, decision or order or taken any measures or other steps or required any action to be taken or information to be provided or otherwise having done anything and “intervene” shall be construed accordingly; and
- (iii) “Authorisations” means authorisations, orders, grants, recognitions, determinations, certificates, confirmations, consents, licences, clearances, provisions and approvals, in each case, of a Third Party.

Part B Waiver and invocation of the Conditions

11. Subject to the requirements of the Panel, Bidco reserves the right in its sole discretion to waive all or any of the Conditions set out in Part A of this Appendix 1 except Conditions 2(a)(i), 2(b)(i), 2(c)(i) which cannot be waived. The deadlines in any of Conditions 2(a)(ii), 2(b)(ii) and 2(c)(ii) may be extended to such later date as may be agreed in writing by Bidco and Hotel Chocolat (with the consent of the Panel, if required) and with the approval of the Court, if such approval is required. If any of Conditions 2(a)(ii), 2(b)(ii) or 2(c)(ii) are not satisfied by the deadline specified in the relevant Condition, Bidco shall make an announcement by 8.00 a.m. on the Business Day following such deadline confirming whether it has invoked the relevant Condition, waived the relevant deadline or agreed with Hotel Chocolat to extend the relevant deadline.

12. Bidco shall be under no obligation to waive (if capable of waiver), to determine to be or remain satisfied or to treat as fulfilled any of Conditions 3 to 10 in Part A of this Appendix 1 by a date earlier than the Long-Stop Date, notwithstanding that the other Conditions may at such earlier date have been waived or fulfilled and that there are, at such earlier date, no circumstances indicating that any Condition may not be capable of fulfilment.
13. Subject to paragraph 14 below, under Rule 13.5(a) of the Code, Bidco may only invoke a Condition so as to cause the Acquisition not to proceed, to lapse or to be withdrawn with the consent of the Panel. The Panel will normally only give its consent if the circumstances which give rise to the right to invoke the Condition are of material significance to Bidco in the context of the Acquisition. This will be judged by reference to the facts of each case at the time that the relevant circumstances arise.
14. The Conditions set out in paragraphs 1 and 2(a)(i), 2(b)(i) and 2(c)(i) of Part A of this Appendix 1 (and any Takeover Offer acceptance condition adopted on the basis specified in Part C of this Appendix 1) will not be subject to Rule 13.5(a) of the Code.
15. Any Condition that is subject to Rule 13.5(a) of the Code may be waived by Bidco.
16. The Scheme will not become effective unless the Conditions have been fulfilled or (to the extent capable of waiver) waived or, where appropriate, have been determined by Bidco to be or remain satisfied by no later than the Long-Stop Date.
17. If the Panel requires Bidco to make an offer or offers for any Hotel Chocolat Shares under the provisions of Rule 9 of the Code, Bidco may make such alterations to the Conditions as are necessary to comply with the provisions of that Rule.
18. Each of the Conditions shall be regarded as a separate Condition and shall not be limited by reference to any other Condition.

Part C Implementation by way of Takeover Offer

19. Bidco reserves the right to elect to implement the Acquisition by way of a Takeover Offer, subject to the Panel's consent and (where relevant) to the terms of the Cooperation Agreement. In such event, subject to the Cooperation Agreement, such Takeover Offer will be implemented on the same terms and conditions, so far as applicable, as those which would apply to the Scheme subject to appropriate amendments to reflect the change in method of effecting the Acquisition, including (without limitation and subject to the consent of the Panel) an acceptance condition that is set at 75 per cent. of the Hotel Chocolat Shares (or such other percentage (being more than 50 per cent.) as Bidco may decide (subject to the Panel's consent)) (i) in nominal value of the shares to which such Takeover Offer relates; and (ii) of the voting rights attaching to those shares.

Part D Certain further terms of the Acquisition

20. Hotel Chocolat Shares will be acquired by Bidco fully paid and free from all liens, equitable interests, charges, encumbrances, rights of pre-emption and other third party rights of any nature whatsoever and together with all rights attaching to them as at the date of this announcement or subsequently attaching or accruing to them, including the right to receive and retain, in full, all dividends and other distributions (if any) declared, made, paid or payable, or any other return of capital or value made, on or after the date of this announcement, other than any dividend or distribution in respect of which Bidco exercises its rights under the terms of the Acquisition to reduce the consideration payable in respect of each Hotel Chocolat Share.
21. If, on or after the date of this announcement and prior to the Effective Date, any dividend and/or other distribution and/or other return of capital or value is announced, declared, made or paid or becomes payable in respect of the Hotel Chocolat Shares, Bidco reserves the right (without prejudice to any right of Bidco to invoke Condition 7(c) in Part A of this Appendix 1), to reduce the consideration payable under the Cash Offer (and, as the case may be, the consideration due under the Partial Share Alternative) under the terms of the Acquisition for the Hotel Chocolat Shares by an amount up to the amount of such dividend and/or distribution and/or return of capital or value. In such circumstances, Hotel Chocolat Shareholders shall be entitled to retain any such dividend, distribution, or other return of value declared, made, or paid. Where the consideration payable is so reduced, any reference in this announcement or in the Scheme Document to the consideration payable under the terms of the Acquisition will be deemed to be a reference to the consideration as so reduced. To the extent that any such dividend and/or distribution and/or other return of capital or value is announced declared, made or paid or is payable and it is: (i) transferred pursuant to the Acquisition on a basis which entitles Bidco to receive the dividend or distribution and to retain it; or (ii) cancelled, the consideration payable under the terms of the Acquisition will not be subject to change in accordance with this paragraph. Any exercise by Bidco of its rights referred to in this paragraph shall be the subject of an announcement and, for the avoidance of doubt, shall not be regarded as constituting any revision or variation of the Acquisition.
22. The Acquisition will be subject, inter alia, to the Conditions and certain further terms which are set out in this Appendix 1 and those terms which will be set out in the Scheme Document and such further terms as may be required to comply with the provisions of the Code.
23. The availability of the Acquisition (including the Partial Share Alternative) to persons not resident in the United Kingdom may be affected by the laws of the relevant jurisdiction. Any persons who are subject to the laws of any jurisdiction other than the United Kingdom should inform themselves about and observe any applicable requirements. Further information in relation to Overseas Shareholders will be contained in the Scheme Document.
24. Unless otherwise determined by Bidco or required by the Code and permitted by applicable law and regulations, the Acquisition (including the Partial Share Alternative) is not being, and will not be, made, directly or indirectly, in, into or by the use of the mail of, or by any other means or instrumentality (including, but not limited to, facsimile, email or other electronic transmission, telex or telephone) of interstate or foreign commerce of, or of any facility of a national, state or other securities exchange of, any Restricted Jurisdiction and will not be capable of acceptance by any such use, means, instrumentality or facility or from within any Restricted Jurisdiction.

25. This announcement and any rights or liabilities arising hereunder, the Acquisition, the Scheme, the Partial Share Alternative (and any elections thereunder) and any proxies will be governed by English law and be subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales. The Scheme will be subject to the applicable requirements of the Code, the Panel, the London Stock Exchange, the AIM Rules and the FCA.

Appendix 4

Details on Bidco and the Rollover Shares

1. Information on Bidco and the intermediate holding company

Bidco is a corporation incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware in the United States of America. Bidco is indirectly wholly owned by Mars and was formed for the purpose of implementing the Acquisition. Bidco has not traded or entered into any obligations other than in connection with the Acquisition. The share capital of Bidco currently comprises 100 Initial Bidco Shares, but will be reorganised on or around the Effective Date so that it comprises 99,633,261 Bidco A Shares and 42,699,969 Rollover Shares, and the Initial Bidco Shares will be cancelled.

At the date of this announcement, Bidco is a wholly-owned direct subsidiary of Mars Snacking Holdings.

Mars Snacking Holdings is a corporation incorporated in Delaware, United States of America and is a wholly-owned direct subsidiary of Mars.

Set out below is a summary of the proposed share capital structure of Bidco and the provisions of the Bidco Organisational Documents and the Bidco Shareholders' Agreement governing the terms on which eligible Hotel Chocolat Shareholders who validly elect for the Partial Share Alternative will hold Rollover Shares in Bidco pursuant to the mechanism described in paragraphs 13 and 14 of the announcement above. Further details will be included in the Scheme Document.

Eligible Hotel Chocolat Shareholders who elect for the Partial Share Alternative will, pursuant to a power of attorney to be included in the Form of Election and/or the Scheme, deliver a fully executed deed of adherence pursuant to which they will be bound by the Bidco Shareholders' Agreement.

2. Information on Bidco shares

On or around the Effective Date, Bidco is expected to issue around 142,333,230 Bidco Shares (on the basis of the maximum issue of Hotel Chocolat Shares pursuant to the Hotel Chocolat Share Schemes described in Appendix 2), and the Initial Bidco Shares will be cancelled. If the Partial Share Alternative were taken up in full by eligible Hotel Chocolat Shareholders, and assuming the amount of Hotel Chocolat Shares issued pursuant to the Hotel Chocolat Share Schemes prior to the Effective Date is consistent with the calculation set out in Appendix 2 to this announcement, Bidco would issue around:

- (a) 99,633,261 Bidco A Shares to Mars Snacking Holdings to fund the cash consideration and costs and expenses payable in respect of the Acquisition; and
- (b) 42,699,969 Rollover Shares to those Hotel Chocolat Shareholders who validly elect to receive the Partial Share Alternative.

3. Terms of issue of Rollover Shares

The Rollover Shares to be issued to eligible Hotel Chocolat Shareholders who elect for the Partial Share Alternative will be issued credited as fully paid and will rank economically pari passu with the Bidco A Shares being issued to Mars Snacking Holdings pursuant to the Acquisition as described above, including the right to receive and retain dividends and other distributions declared, made or paid by reference to a record date falling on or after the date of this announcement.

4. Economic rights

The economic rights described below are subject to the risks also described below and in paragraph 15 of this announcement (for example, that (i) holders of Rollover Shares may be diluted over time, potentially significantly, should holders of Rollover Shares not elect to participate in further issues of additional shares, loan notes or other securities of the Bidco Group; (ii) holders of Rollover Shares are not always entitled to participate in such issues; and (iii) such additional securities may have different rights to the Rollover Shares).

Subject to the above, at the date of this announcement, any return of proceeds to shareholders of Bidco, whether on an Exit (as described below in paragraph 12 of this Appendix 4) or otherwise, including the right to receive and retain dividends and all other distributions and returns of capital made or paid, shall be distributed to each holder of Bidco A Shares and Rollover Shares pro rata to their holdings of Bidco Shares. The Bidco A Shares and the Rollover Shares shall rank equally as regards any distributions, dividends, buy-back, any other capital redemption or other returns of income or capital made by Bidco.

5. Governance and voting rights

Every holder of one or more Bidco A Shares on the date on which either a written resolution is circulated or a general meeting is held and who is present at such meeting shall, subject to the Bidco Organisational Documents and the Bidco Shareholders' Agreement, have one vote for each Bidco A Share.

The Rollover Shares will not entitle the holders thereof to: (i) any votes; (ii) receive a copy of any written resolution; or (iii) receive notice of any general meetings.

Bidco will generally be governed by a board of directors. The following matters, however, are reserved matters requiring the prior consent of holders of 75% or more of the Rollover Shares ("Rollover Shareholder Supermajority Consent"):

- (a) any issuances of shares by Bidco which are not in accordance with the pre-emption, catch-up or other procedures and customary exceptions specified in the Bidco Organisational Documents and the Bidco Shareholders' Agreement;
- (b) any dividends or distributions by Bidco to holders of Rollover Shares. Other returns of capital, including by way of buyback or repurchase of Rollover Shares, will not require Rollover Shareholder Supermajority Consent, but Mars Snacking Holdings will be required to consider in good faith any potential material adverse tax consequences of such actions on Original Rollover Shareholders (as a whole or in general) as compared to Mars Snacking Holdings prior to taking them;
- (c) any amendments to the provisions of the Bidco Organisational Documents or the Bidco Shareholders' Agreement relating to (i) the content or scope of matters requiring, or approval thresholds for, Rollover Shareholder Supermajority Consent described in this paragraph 5, (ii) permitted transfers of Rollover Shares by Rollover Shareholders as described in paragraph 6 of this Appendix 4, (iii) the exercise, valuation and deferral of put and call options described in paragraph 7 of this Appendix 4, (iv) the board appointment right for Original Rollover Shareholders described in paragraph 10 of this Appendix 4, and (v) drag-along and tag-along rights in relation to the Rollover Shares described in paragraph 13 of this Appendix 4;

- (d) any other amendments to the rights of Rollover Shares which would be materially and/or disproportionately adverse to the economic, tax or legal position of the Original Rollover Shareholders (as a whole or in general) as compared to Mars Snacking Holdings, provided that other amendments to the rights of Bidco Shares as described below shall be permitted;
- (e) the entry into, variation or termination of any related party contract with Mars Snacking Holdings and/or its affiliates (subject to (i) customary carve outs, including for actions taken in the ordinary course of business, and (ii) a de minimis threshold).

Except as described in paragraphs (c) and (d) above, Mars Snacking Holdings may amend the rights of the Bidco Shares (notwithstanding any class rights) without the consent of the Rollover Shareholders (including Rollover Shareholder Supermajority Consent), provided that reasonable notice setting out the amendments shall be sent to Rollover Shareholders. Any amendments made without Rollover Shareholder Supermajority Consent shall be for bona fide purposes.

6. Transfers of Rollover Shares

Rollover Shares will not be transferable during an initial five-year lock up period (the “Lock-Up Period”) without the prior written consent of Mars Snacking Holdings except pursuant to the put and call options described below or a reorganisation approved by Mars Snacking Holdings or in respect of customary permitted transfers by an Original Rollover Shareholder to its Associates or by its Associates to other Associates of the Original Rollover Shareholder (subject in each case to such Associates satisfying the requirements in paragraphs (a) to (c) below). Permitted transfers to Associates may be in respect of some but not all of the Rollover Shares held by an Original Rollover Shareholder.

No changes in direct or indirect interests or economic entitlements in Rollover Shares shall be permitted which circumvent the restrictions on transfers during the Lock-Up Period and, without prejudice to any claims available as a matter of law, all rights attaching to such Rollover Shares shall be suspended during any such breach.

Following the Lock-Up Period, an Original Rollover Shareholder shall be entitled to transfer its Rollover Shares (provided that any such transfer is for all (but not part) of the Rollover Shares held by such Rollover Shareholder and any of its Associates), subject to a right of first refusal in favour of Mars Snacking Holdings (other than on transfers to an Associate of such Original Rollover Shareholder) and to certain other restrictions in respect of the identity of the proposed transferee. In particular, any proposed transferee of Rollover Shares after the Lock-Up Period shall:

- (a) adhere to the Bidco Shareholders’ Agreement;

- (b) complete any applicable anti-money laundering, anti-bribery and corruption, anti-sanctions and “Know Your Client” checks reasonably required by Mars Snacking Holdings or its associates, the Bidco Group or the Hotel Chocolat Group (to be undertaken promptly) and/or any antitrust or regulatory change in control approvals required by any regulator (which the Bidco Group and Hotel Chocolat shall provide reasonable information and assistance in obtaining, if required); and
- (c) not be permitted if considered by the board of Bidco (acting reasonably and without delay) to be a competitor of the Bidco Group or the Hotel Chocolat Group, or a person whose investment is likely to result in reputational harm to Mars or its associates, the Bidco Group or the Hotel Chocolat Group.

7. Put and Call Options

During certain pre-defined option exercise periods commencing on 31 December 2025, 31 December 2026, 31 December 2027 (each an “Interim Option Exercise Period”) and 31 December 2028 (the “Final Option Exercise Period”), Mars Snacking Holdings shall have the right to call for the transfer to it of:

- (a) in respect of each Interim Option Exercise Period, 20 per cent. of the Rollover Shares subscribed for by each Original Rollover Shareholder at or around the Effective Date (plus 100 per cent. of any additional Rollover Shares held by such Original Rollover Shareholder and its Associates as a result of exercise of the Option Deferral Right (defined below) in an earlier Interim Option Exercise Period); and
- (b) in respect of the Final Option Exercise Period, all remaining Rollover Shares held by each Rollover Shareholder, for cash consideration, calculated pursuant to the valuation mechanic described below and on and subject to the further terms to be set out in the Bidco Organisational Documents and the Bidco Shareholders’ Agreement.

During each Option Exercise Period, each Original Rollover Shareholder shall also have a corresponding right to require Mars Snacking Holdings to purchase the relevant percentage of its and its Associates’ Rollover Shares described above, for cash consideration calculated pursuant to the valuation mechanic described below.

Anti-circumvention

The valuation mechanic for the put and call options will be subject to customary anti-circumvention protections which will: (i) oblige Mars Snacking Holdings to use commercially reasonable endeavours to operate the Bidco Group’s business in the ordinary course; (ii) prohibit Mars Snacking Holdings from taking (or causing or permitting to be done) any action in bad faith with the purpose of reducing the price payable to Rollover Shareholders in connection with the exercise of the put or call options; and (iii) prohibit any Rollover Shareholder from taking (or permitting to be done) any action in bad faith with the purpose of increasing the price payable to Rollover Shareholders in connection with the exercise of the put or call options where such action is not in the best interests of the Bidco Group’s long-term prospects and success.

Within 60 days of the start of each Option Exercise Period, Mars Snacking Holdings shall provide the Rollover Shareholder Representative with (A) a copy of the Bidco Group's annual management accounts (in GBP) for the relevant Reference Period, (B) written confirmation of the put and call option price for the relevant Option Exercise Period, as calculated by or on behalf of Mars Snacking Holdings (the "Option Price"), and (C) details of Mars Snacking Holdings' calculation of the put and call option price (together the "Calculation Information"). In the event that the Rollover Shareholder Representative considers in good faith that the Option Price is materially lower than it should be based on the Calculation Information, the Rollover Shareholder Representative shall be entitled to request that Bidco engages an appropriately qualified independent third party accountant to review the Calculation Information and provide an independent calculation of the put and call option price for that Option Exercise Period (the "Independent Valuation Price"). By requiring an independent valuation as described above, the Rollover Shareholder Representative shall be deemed to agree as agent on behalf of all Rollover Shareholders that the Independent Valuation Price shall apply in respect of that Option Exercise Period and that, if the Independent Valuation Price is less than 5 per cent. higher than the Option Price, all reasonable costs payable by Bidco in relation to the independent valuation shall be deducted from the cash amount payable to Rollover Shareholders in respect of exercise of that put and call option.

Valuation mechanic for put and call options

The price to be paid per Rollover Share pursuant to the put and call options shall be calculated at an enterprise value based on an average of the Bidco Group's revenue and (US GAAP) EBITDA multiple (equally weighted), in each case adjusted for the performance of the Bidco Group in the 12 month period prior to commencement of the relevant Option Exercise Period (the "Reference Period") and net of net debt adjustments. The relevant revenue and (US GAAP) EBITDA multiple shall be calculated and adjusted for the performance of the Bidco Group during each Reference Period, as follows:

- (c) if EBITDA is at or above the EBITDA Value for the relevant Reference Period, 3.0x revenue and 20.0x EBITDA (equally weighted);
- (d) if EBITDA is at or above the Low-End EBITDA Value but below the EBITDA Value, between 2.5x and 3.0x revenue and 17.0x and 20.0x EBITDA (equally weighted), increasing on a linear basis within the stated ranges based on EBITDA; or
- (e) if EBITDA is below the Low-End EBITDA Value, 2.0x revenue and 14.0x EBITDA (equally weighted), with the resulting valuation then adjusted for net debt and then divided by the number of Bidco Shares in issue on the final day of the preceding Reference Period.

The agreed "EBITDA Value" and "Low-End EBITDA Value" for each Reference Period will be as follows:

Reference Period	EBITDA Value	Low-End EBITDA Value
12 months ended 31 December 2025	£50 million	£30 million
12 months ended 31 December 2026	£60 million	£40 million
12 months ended 31 December 2027	£70 million	£50 million
12 months ended 31 December 2028	£80 million	£60 million

Further details regarding the valuation mechanic for the put and call options will be included in the Bidco Organisational Documents and the Bidco Shareholders' Agreement which are expected to be published on or around the date of publication of the Scheme Document.

Deferral of put / call option exercise

Any Original Rollover Shareholder holding at least 5 per cent. of the Bidco Shares issued at or around the Effective Date may defer their right to exercise the put option in any Interim Option Exercise Period until the next Option Exercise Period (the “Option Deferral Right”). The Option Deferral Right shall be exercisable by service of written notice (in accordance with the Bidco Organisational Documents and the Bidco Shareholders' Agreement) to Mars Snacking Holdings.

If the Option Deferral Right is exercised:

- (f) the put option rights of such Original Rollover Shareholder (together with the equivalent rights of its Associates) in respect of the relevant Interim Option Exercise Period shall be deferred in full until the next Option Exercise Period;
- (g) Mars Snacking Holdings' right to exercise its call option in respect of such Original Rollover Shareholder (together with the equivalent rights of its Associates) in such Interim Option Exercise Period shall also be deferred in full until the next Option Exercise Period (other than in relation to Rollover Shares held by such persons as a result of an earlier exercise of the Option Deferral Right); and
- (h) the price payable in respect of exercise of any deferred put and/or call option in the next Option Exercise Period shall be calculated by reference to (i) the Bidco Group's performance in the most recent completed Reference Period prior to exercise of the deferred put or call option (as applicable), and (ii) the EBITDA Value and Low-End EBITDA Value in respect of such later Option Exercise Period.

The Option Deferral Right can only be exercised by an Original Rollover Shareholder once in relation to each Interim Option Exercise Period. Multiple deferrals by an Original Rollover Shareholder of the put and call options relating to their and their Associates'

Rollover Shares in respect of the same Interim Option Exercise Period will not be permitted.

8. Additional Bidco Share Issues

Further issues of securities by Bidco may be implemented following the Effective Date.

If Bidco proposes to issue new Bidco Shares, each holder of Bidco Shares shall be entitled to participate pro rata in such issuance, exercisable on at least 15 Business Days' written notice, excluding issues of Bidco Shares or transfers of Bidco Shares from treasury:

- (a) to Mars Snacking Holdings and/or its associates to finance the Acquisition;
- (b) to the Original Rollover Shareholders pursuant to the Scheme and/or the mechanism described in paragraph 14 above;
- (c) to actual or potential employees, directors, officers or consultants (whether directly or indirectly) which shall dilute Mars Snacking Holdings' Bidco Shares and the Rollover Shareholders' Bidco Shares pro rata;
- (d) other than to Mars Snacking Holdings or its associates, for non-cash consideration on the acquisition of, or merger with, all or part of another business, undertaking, company or assets, which shall dilute Mars Snacking Holdings' Bidco Shares and the Rollover Shareholders' Bidco Shares pro rata;
- (e) other than to Mars Snacking Holdings or its associates, in connection with any debt financing arrangements of the Bidco Group, which shall dilute Mars Snacking Holdings' Bidco Shares and the Rollover Shareholders' Bidco Shares pro rata;
- (f) in connection with an IPO or a pre-IPO reorganisation; or
- (g) in respect of which Mars Snacking Holdings obtains Rollover Shareholder Supermajority Consent to the disapplication of pre-emption rights.

In the case of an issue of further Bidco Shares to Mars Snacking Holdings (or its affiliates), such recipient will receive Bidco A Shares and the Rollover Shareholders entitled to participate in such issue will receive further Rollover Shares. Bidco A Shares and Rollover Shares shall be issued pro rata in the proportions which exist immediately before the new issue of securities if each shareholder in Bidco exercises their pre-emption rights in full.

Unless otherwise agreed between Mars Snacking Holdings and the Rollover Shareholder Representative, any issues of Bidco Shares following the Effective Date shall occur at fair market value.

9. Terms of Partial Share Alternative in the event of a switch

In the event that Bidco elects, with the consent of the Panel and subject to the Cooperation Agreement, to switch to a Takeover Offer, and less than one hundred per cent. of the Hotel Chocolat Shares are acquired by Bidco on or around the date of such Takeover Offer becoming unconditional, the total number of Bidco A Shares to be issued to Mars Snacking Holdings and Rollover Shares to be issued to Hotel Chocolat Shareholders who elect for the Partial Share Alternative will be reduced (and in the same proportions as between Bidco

A Shares and Rollover Shares such that the maximum number of Rollover Shares available to Hotel Chocolat Shareholders under the Partial Share Alternative will remain equal to the equivalent of 30.0 per cent. of the total Bidco Offer Shares in issue at such time).

In that event, if elections for the Partial Share Alternative are unable to be satisfied in full as a result, the number of Rollover Shares to be issued to each eligible Hotel Chocolat Shareholder who has elected for the Partial Share Alternative will be reduced on a pro rata basis, and the consideration for each Hotel Chocolat Share that is not exchanged for Rollover Shares will be paid in cash in accordance with the terms of the Cash Offer.

If (i) further Hotel Chocolat Shares are acquired for cash by or on behalf of Bidco after the Takeover Offer becomes unconditional (under the compulsory acquisition procedure or otherwise), and (ii) the Bidco A Shares to be issued to fund those acquisitions were not included in the calculation of the above 30.0 per cent. entitlement of Hotel Chocolat Shareholders who elect for the Partial Share Alternative, any additional Bidco Shares which are issued in order to fund those acquisitions will be issued in the same proportions as between each class of Bidco A Shares and Rollover Shares as existed following the initial issue of Bidco Offer Shares to electing Hotel Chocolat Shareholders. Holders of Rollover Shares shall be entitled to customary pre-emption rights or catch-up rights in relation to any such additional issue of Bidco Shares in order to maintain their percentage interest in Bidco.

10. Governance; Bidco board representation

Any Original Rollover Shareholder holding (in aggregate with any holdings of its Associates) at least 50 per cent. of the Rollover Shares issued to Original Rollover Shareholders at or around the Effective Date from time to time shall have the right to appoint a member to Bidco's board of directors at any time during the Lock-up Period (subject to the identity of such member being acceptable to the board of directors of Bidco (acting reasonably and in good faith)) to attend, speak and vote at meetings of the board of directors of Bidco. All other members of the Bidco board of directors will be appointed by Mars Snacking Holdings (or its associates).

Capital expenditure by the Bidco Group in excess of agreed levels (on a per project / per major investment basis) shall only be permitted with board supermajority consent (requiring approval of a majority of the Bidco board of directors, including any member of the Bidco board of directors appointed by an Original Rollover Shareholder pursuant to this paragraph 10). Further details will be set out in the Bidco Shareholders' Agreement.

11. Information rights

Any director appointed to Bidco's board of directors in accordance with paragraph 10 of this Appendix 4 shall receive all notices of board meetings and shall be provided with (subject to customary confidentiality undertakings, carve-outs for situations in which the board considers in good faith that such director has a conflict of interest and restrictions around the sharing of such information) all relevant papers, documents and reports provided to the members of the board, and papers, material provided to, minutes of and resolutions approved by such board and any committee of such board.

Except as provided for in this paragraph 11 and without prejudice to the information to be provided to the Rollover Shareholder Representative pursuant to paragraph 7 of this

Appendix 4, neither the Bidco Organisational Documents nor the Bidco Shareholders' Agreement will provide information rights for Rollover Shareholders.

12. Exit Arrangements

During the Lock-Up Period

During the Lock-Up Period, the following actions and liquidity events shall be at Mars Snacking Holdings' sole discretion:

- (a) any sale, transfer or disposal of or other dealing in Bidco Shares (other than Rollover Shares);
- (b) the giving of any consent for any transfer of Rollover Shares;
- (c) any reorganisation of the Bidco Group (including but not limited to any winding up or similar process in respect of any member of the Bidco Group where such process is required by applicable law or such action would not reasonably be expected to have an adverse effect on the Bidco Group as a whole or the put and call valuation described in paragraph 7). Rollover Shareholders shall co-operate and take such actions in respect of any proposed reorganisation as are reasonably requested by Bidco, Mars Snacking Holdings or Mars.

Following the Lock-Up Period

Following the Lock-Up Period, any sale of shares, asset sale, IPO, winding-up or other form of liquidity event relating to the Bidco Group (other than pursuant to the put options described in paragraph 7 of this Appendix 4) (an "Exit") shall be at the absolute discretion of Mars Snacking Holdings.

All holders of Rollover Shares are required to co-operate and take such actions in respect of any proposed Exit as are reasonably requested by Bidco, Mars Snacking Holdings or Mars. This shall include without limitation: (i) cooperating in respect of any reorganisation, restructuring or other corporate (or similar) action required to facilitate such Exit; (ii) providing warranties as to the title to the Rollover Shares held by such holder and its capacity to sell such Rollover Shares; and (iii) in the case of an IPO, entering into customary "lock-up" undertakings.

13. Drag-along and tag-along

Following the Lock-Up Period:

- (a) Mars Snacking Holdings shall have a drag right in relation to all Rollover Shares on the same economic terms on any disposal of direct or indirect interests in Bidco Shares by Mars Snacking Holdings and/or its affiliates to a bona fide purchaser which is not connected with Mars Snacking Holdings if, following such transfer, the purchaser would thereafter directly or indirectly hold a majority of the Bidco Shares.
- (b) Original Rollover Shareholders shall have a "pro rata" tag right (applicable in relation to Rollover Shares held by such Original Rollover Shareholder and its Associates) on the same economic terms on any transfer of Bidco Shares by Mars Snacking Holdings, other than in respect of certain excluded instances including, but not limited to: (i) customary permitted transfers to affiliates or any current or prospective director, officer, employee or consultant of the Bidco Group; (ii) a reorganisation or IPO of Bidco or the Bidco Group; or (iii) where a drag right has been exercised. Original Rollover Shareholders shall have a full tag right (applicable in relation to Rollover Shares held by such Original Rollover Shareholder and its Associates) on the same economic terms on a transfer by Mars Snacking Holdings of a majority of the Bidco Shares (save that this right will be subject to certain excluded instances specified above). The tag rights described in this paragraph are exercisable by an Original Rollover Shareholder in respect of all but not only some of the Rollover Shares to which those tag rights apply.

14. Governing law and jurisdiction

The Bidco Shareholders' Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Delaware in the United States. The relevant courts of the State of Delaware have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute which may arise out of or in connection with the Bidco Shareholders' Agreement and accordingly any proceedings arising out of or in connection with the Bidco Shareholders' Agreement shall be brought in such courts.

15. "Know Your Client" and other regulatory requirements

Eligible Hotel Chocolat Shareholders who elect for the Partial Share Alternative will be required to provide, and procure that their affiliates and other related persons provide, to Bidco and Mars before the Effective Date such materials and information with respect to themselves (and, to the extent applicable, their directors, shareholders, members, affiliates and other relevant parties) as requested by Bidco, Mars Snacking Holdings or Mars in order to satisfy any applicable anti-money laundering, anti-bribery and corruption, anti-sanctions and "Know Your Client" checks reasonably required by Bidco, Mars Snacking Holdings or Mars or their respective associates and/or any antitrust or regulatory change in control approvals required by any regulator.
